The Exchange hotel bar-room has en re-floored with maple. The landlord evidently is preparing for the rush for drinks between the present time and the passing of the Scott Act.

BARN MOVING.—The difficult feat of moving a building 50:20 through an erchard a distance of some 20 rods, was successfully performed by D. A. Mc-Laren, of Garbraid, last week. The moving apparatus used by Dan is tip top. Only three trees had to be removed, and these were easily replanted. The job was done for D. Cummings, who will now have the largest carpenter shop in the county.

Brussels.

Mat. Armstrong, formerly Capt. the "Clipper" base ball club, Brussels, champions of Canada, has signed with the Oconto, Wisconsin, team for this season. Mat will show them where catching and throwing came from.

GOOD RIDDANCE. - Last week the women, who came here from Seaforth, who were keeping a disreputable house packed up their baggage and started for Kincardine. It speaks well for Brussels that institutions of this kind are not prosperous here and the keepers soen seek pastures new.

AFTER THE PEDLARS.—Someone at Blyth is bringing the pedlars of this section of the county to time for net having license for selling, and this week, John Tait, who runs W. H. McCracken's wagon, and Jas. Dron had to shell out $10 and costs to the Blyth magistrate. They have obtained license which costs $10 more. We hear it stated that no one will escape and the only salvation is to get the license. – [Post.

Brown Pointer freshened up the looks of his fence by a new coat of paint. Mrs Fowler, of Teeswater, was visiting her father, Mr. Hiscocks of this place last week.

Mr. Clifton of West Wawanosh had a new barn erected on his place last week. The building is a very large one. It took four days to raise it.

Rev. Mr. Lowe occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church last Sunday. The same gentleman will occupy the same pulpit during the coming two Sabbaths.

Last Tuesday afternoon, while Mr. Fisher was attending the saw in Jewell's mill, about seven miles from here, in Ashfield township, his hand got caught with the large saw, and the thumb and fere-finger were nearly severed from the hand. Dr. McKay was promptly on hand, and attended to the wound.

There was a social in the Methodist church here last Friday evening. The audience was not very large, but the good things previded were ef first quality, and an excellent programme was gone through, after the eatables were disposed of. A very pleasant feature of the social was when Mr. Caswell called Miss Anderson, organist, to the platform, and presented her with an elegant silver cake basket, in token of the appreciation of her services as organist.

The Expositor says:—The early pioners are rapidly passing away. The public learned with some surprise and deep regret on Monday morning of the death of Hugh Grieve, who resided on the 2nd concession of McKillop, near this town. Mr. Grieve was an usually healthy, robust man for his age and any person seeing him a few weeks ago would healthy, robust man for his age and any person seeing him a few weeks ago would have said that he was good for several years yet. It was ordered otherwise, however, and he passed quietly away, surrounded by his children and friends, on Sunday evening after an illness of only ten days. He has never really hear confined to had a way was in Seabeen confined to bed, and was in Seaforth transacting business a week previous to his death. He had attained the good age of Mr. Grieve was a native of Rexboroshire, Scotland. He came to this country in 1839, and was accompanied by his father, mother and brother Thomas. Shortly after arriving here his father died, and his was the second interment made in the Harpurhey cemetery, and father and son now lie there side by side. Mr. Grieves having other friends in this section came directly to McKillop and took up and locafed the farm where he continued to reside until his death. At that time it was a dense forest, but by industry and good management he soon succeeded in converting it into one of the handsomest and most productive and profitable farms in the county, from the fruits of which he not only succeeded in establishing all his children in comforta-ble homes but leaves behind a competency besides. In the year 1845 he was married to Miss Janet Govenlock, a sist er of the Messrs. Govenlock, of Mc-Killop. She died about ten years ago. He leaves behind a family of three sons and four daughters all of whom were in attendance to pay the last sad rights to the remains of a departed and loved parent, save one, Mrs. H. Robertson who resides in Dakota, He was a member of the Presbyterian church, and in politics was ever a staunch and zealou Reformer. As a man he had many friends and few enemies, being kind friends and few enemies, being kind and considerate in his dealings with his fellew men; a good neighbor, a worthy citizen, and a kind and affectionate parent. The funeral took place on Tuesday, and notwithstanding that the weather was wet and unpleasant, the procession was one of the longest seen in this section for some time.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Thos.
Tipling fell head first into an open cellar way, falling heavily on her shoulder. It was at first thought she had sustained fatal injuries, but while she received a pretty bad shock, no serious results are anticipated.

The convention to be held here on the 27th inst., promises to be largely attended. Much interest is being taken in the matter throughout the county, and it is altogether likely that the convention will be the most enthusiastic of its kind everheld in Huron. Many, who hitherto have been epposed to temperance principles, are expressing their determination.
