

"Little chicks are soon roasted"

Every cocoa manufacturer must remember this homely proverb or he'll scorch his reputation as well as his flavor.

Cocoa beans vary in size. If roasted together, the small beans would burn by the time the large ones were brought to the right flavor. To insure a perfect, uniform roast, the small and imperfect beans are removed.

Variations in weather, fertilizers, pickers employed and a hundred and one other things, all influence the quality of the cocoa beans. We therefore test each shipment of beans for flavor.

Only strict standards in buying, blending and roasting can insure the unmatched flavor that Mr. Lowney insists on.

You invariably find in Lowney's a full, exquisite richness to be had in no other cocoa.

Sold by grocers. In tins—10c to 50c sizes.
