WAR BUDGET.

Desperately the Roumanians, probably aided by the Russians, are defending the southern and western approaches to Bucharest while the Teutonic advance continues to press more closely on Roumanian capital from the northwest. It is unofficially reported from London that Russian troops have arrived at Bucharest to aid the hard pressed Roumanian forces. Progress for advancing German-Austro-Hungary armies in Wallachia and South Bucharest is reported by Berlin, which says Roumanians continue to offer resistance. The Roumanians apparently are on or near the line of Argeshu, as Petrograd says the invaders have occupied two towns south of Bucharest, and near that river. Field Marshal Von Mackensen, Berlin reports, has thrown an army across Niaslov low lands which would be approaching Argeshu in the direction of Bucharest. Advancing southward from Campulung Pitești region the Teutonic invaders have taken prisoners and cannons and much other equipment from the retreating Roumanians. In the fighting reported in the latest communique Berlin says the Roumanians have lost more than 2,500 prisoners, and 21 cannons. The Russians continue aggressively their offensive against Austro-German lines from the Carpathians to southern Transylvania. Berlin states the Russian attacks, which are declared to have been along a front of 186 miles from Jablonitza to Kistal Vasarhely, resulted only in small advantages which is declared not to be commensurate with the cost in men and ammunition. Petrograd admits repulse southwest of Vakaria in the Carpathians, but records capture of ridge heights south of Kikilababa. Fighting in Dubrudja has become more intense, and Bucharest announces violent attack along the whole front in that region. Berlin declares the attack against Bulgarian left wing in Dobrudja failed and that British tanks are being used by the attackers. In Galicia there has also been a re-awakening activity. Petrograd records that Austro-German attempt to take the offensive north of Tarnopol Zlochogow railway has been repulsed. In Macedonia in France, and on Austro-Italian fronts there has been no important change in the situation. Artillery activity on the Somme front, northern France and Trentino and Carso region of Italian theatre is reported to be increasing. Both Berlin and Paris claim repulse of attacks northwest of Monastir in Serbia. Admiral Du Fournet, Commander of the Entente Fleet in the Mediterranean, reported to have landed troops at Piraeus, Port of Athens, French, British and Italian contingents are said to have been included in the landing party. Aside from the report that Greek troops are being sent toward Athens from north of Greece there are no indications as to what measures the Greek Government will take to comply with or oppose Admiral De-Fournet's demands for the turning over of Greece's arms and ammunition. An Associated Press despatch from London says that a strong impression is prevalent there that Great Britain will grant the request from Washington for consideration of refusal of safe conduct to Count Tarnowski. Von Tarnowski was recently appointed Austro-Hungarian ambassador to the United States.

FIGHTING IN GREECE.

LONDON, To-day. A despatch to the Daily Mail from Athens time 11.45 a.m. on Friday, says firing has taken place between the French sailors and Reservists on the slopes of Acropolis. Passengers from Piraeus say when passing through the railroad station they witnessed fighting. This fighting, according to other information, was between French sailors and Greek troops. Panic has begun in Athens and crowds are rushing through the streets and shops are being closed. Two French cruisers have entered Piraeus Harbor.

CENTRAL POWERS TO HELP GREECE.

LONDON, To-day. An Amsterdam despatch to the Times says that it is reported in certain circles that the Central Powers intend to offer assistance to the King of Greece. The despatch says that it is suggested that the Greek refusal to surrender arms and ammunition would be followed by a declaration of war against the Allies.

GREECE WILL GIVE UP ARTILLERY.

ATHENS, To-day. The King of Greece has agreed to give up the artillery as demanded by Admiral Du Fournet, and the Allies troops are withdrawing from Piraeus. On the intervention of Spanish and Dutch Ministers, the entire Cabinet and the Entente diplomats met at the French Legation at 8 o'clock last evening to discuss the possibility of an agreement; an armistice was finally arranged and firing ceased.

CANADIAN AND BRITISH PRISONERS SENTENCED BY HUNS.

OTTAWA, To-day. A number of Canadians are included among British prisoners of war in Germany who have been sentenced by the Huns to twelve years' imprisonment; offence is not stated. The affair came to light through a notification to the Red Cross Society that food and comforts for prisoners could not be forwarded to those who were under conviction. The military department has not been advised of the names or any information regarding the case.

MARINES LANDED.

ATHENS, To-day. Admiral Du Fournet landed some four hundred marines at an early hour and marched toward Athens, seizing Phopaphos Hill overlooking the city Briege.

ITALIAN FRONTIER CLOSED.

ROME, To-day. The Italian frontier has been closed since Wednesday. Letters, newspapers and parcels have all been held up by the censor at Domedessola, Italy, and the courier service between Locarno, Switzerland and Domedessola has been suspended.

AMERICANS WANT ARMISTICE.

NEW YORK, To-day. Resolutions urging President Wilson to do all in his power to arrange an armistice between warring powers of Europe before Christmas, were passed last night by the Central Federal Labor Union with 500,000 members in the Metropolitan district. Another resolution called upon all unions in the United States to take similar action.

True Bill Against James Bellman.

In responding to a summons issued to the Grand Jury yesterday, they assembled in the Court House this morning and listened to the evidence in the matter of the Crown vs. James Bellman, captain of the schooner Liza M. Stanley, who is charged with visiting the home of Catherine Ryan at Port Saunders on the night of Aug. 30th, 1916, and assaulting the said Catherine Ryan. Hon. M. P. Gibbs, K.C., appeared for the Crown; L. E. Emerson for the accused. On being asked by the Clerk of the Court if such was the case he pleaded not guilty. His Lordship the evidence, ordered that the case be tried before a special jury on Friday next.

Train Notes.

The incoming express left Port aux Basques at midnight yesterday, and is due here about 6 a.m. to-morrow. The local from Carbonear reached the city shortly after noon to-day. Thursday's express reached Port aux Basques at 2.05 a.m. to-day.

Hanged at St. John's P.Q.

21-Year-Old Murderer Pays the Penalty—Feeling so Strong Against Him That There Were Fears of Lynching.

St. John's, P.Q., Nov. 24.—After a full confession of his guilt, Dollard Lepine, alias Jean, alias Paul Renard, the 21-year-old murderer of Albert Wing, a St. Luc farmer, paid the penalty in the yard of the St. John's jail at 8 o'clock this morning. Outside the jail gates Lepine's aged mother, who had tried in vain to gain admittance all night, wept bitterly, standing alone among a crowd of at least 1,500.

The execution, which was performed by Arthur Ellis, who has officiated at so many, passed without accident and was carried out expeditiously. The body, after the inquest, was given to the boy's mother.

A large crowd gathered around the jail building, and was held back by a guard of 120 soldiers with fixed bayonets, in charge of a number of officers from the St. John's barracks.

Sandy McTavish

Had His Revenge.

Hired German Street Band to Play "God Save the King" in Chicago Saloon from Which he had been Ejected.

Chicago, Nov. 24.—Strains of "God Save the King," played by a German band in a German saloon, gave pleasure to Sandy McTavish, a Scotchman from Canada, if to no one else in the crowd. He hired the band in revenge for having previously been ejected from the saloon.

When McTavish first dropped into the saloon, which is on South-Clark street, some Germans were toasting Capt. Hans Rose, of the U.S. The Scotchman refused to drink the toast. "My name's McTavish—Sandy McTavish—Wee Sandy, they call me, and I'll give ye a toast," he shouted. "Here's to King George!"

It took five Germans and the porter to put Sandy out.

Two hours later he was back with the little German street band and led it into the saloon. The musicians played the British national anthem four times before the Germans recognized it. After that it was the street for Sandy and his band.
