JUST OPENED, THE LATEST STYLES in_

AMERICAN MILLINERY

We have now ready for your inspection a shipment of LADIES' AMERICAN TRIMMED HATS

> ELEGANT --- TASTY ---EXCLUSIVE.

Ladies, secure the HAT that appeals to your eye now-we have it--to-morrow may be too late.

Marshall Bros

The One to Blame.

By RUTH CAMERON.

after we reached home.

"Why?"

quired Ruth.

1 lb. Blocks and by the lb. bulk.

C. P. BAGAN

loves you more."

"What will it mean?"

The Authorman smiled to himself, bother her," said Molly, romantically,

"Don't!" said the Authorman sharp-

More."

"Because it won't mean that he

"When either person is always

"Can't there ever be a marriage

"Of course," said the Lady-who-always-knows-somehow, "and there

Everyday Etiquette.

"I am invited to an afternoon re

A written reply is necessary. If the invited one is not able to accept she should send her card to the hostess so

California Egg Plums, large cans, 15c. can. Boyer's Pears, large cans, 20c. can. Morton's English Channel Mackerel, 20c. can. California Peaches, large cans,

California Peaches, large cans, 20c. can.

Evaporated Fancy Peaches, 17c. lb.
Good Spanish Figs, 15c. lb.
California Lima Beans, 14c. lb.
"Ocean" Brand Lobster & Salmon, 1 lb. cans.
Sardines, 15c. can.

Sardines, 15c. can. P. E. I. Clams, 17c. can.

FRESH RABBIT, 1 lb. tins.

marriage there is knitted brows while the man tried to person to cheer her up.

marriage, as that thorman's Wife. might sound, but for all the little a bit sardonically I thought. inevitable irritations and incon- that he can't bear to have anything veniences a n d m i s u n d e r- "l do hope my husband will be like standgs and mis- that.

life that one returns to after the glow of romance has sub- "It Won't Mean That He Loves You d into the light of common day. Ordinarily this person is the wo-

I think it is partly woman's econnic dependence, partly her inherited assivity of temperament which blamed by the other ic means just one nakes her more patient about acceptthing,—that the person who gives the blame has the less just and less kin

"Men Get and Forget, Women Give ly disposition. I wouldn't want you and Forgive."

to be that one, sister." You know the old saying, "Men get and forget, women give and forgive." where no one is blamed for things?" But I met a couple the other day in wondered Molly wistfully. which a woman had gotten the whip

We were on a train which was very are going to be more of them as soon late. They were about to miss a as women take their position as mates coveted pleasure engagement. In and companions, and both men and ost of the families I know the wo- women learn more about the princiman would have been to blame for ples of justice and tolerance." this. Her husband would have been storming about, not actually putting the blame on her-he couldn't very well-but giving her a general sense. of guilt, and the woman would be! trying to soothe him and divert his ception, and would like to ask you if

Her Up.

But in this family the woman -undoubtedly had the upper hand. She it that it reaches her on the day of the was who sat back in her seat with reception," was her mother's reply.

Tomatoes, 1 lb. tins, 10c. can; $1.00 per doz. Broken Patna Rice, 6c. lb.

Indian Pea Beans, 10c. lb. Small American Pea Beans,

14c. th.
Best Macaroni, 17c. pkt.
Milk Macaroni, 17c. pkt.
Best Scotch Oatmeal, 9c. lb.
"Gong" Sonp Tablets, 5c. each;
45c. per doz.
Symington's Pea Flour, 25c. can Campbell's Soups, 15c. can.
Evaporated Apricots, 22c. lb.
California Granes Japanes Cane

distriction Grapes, large cans,

2 bris. FRESH RABBITS by Train to-day.

Beans & Rice

THE SECOND SECON

25 sacks, 2 cwt. each. WHOLE 10 sacks, 28's each, WHOLE "Bravo!" said the Cynic.

25 sacks, 100 lbs., SIAM RICE. 45 sacks RANGOON BEANS. We were talking about this couple 25 sacks LIMA BEANS. 50 sacks MEDIUM BUTTER "Wasn't she lucky?" said the Au-

COCOA.

"Probably he's so crazy about her 3 cases, 120 doz. 1/5 FRY'S. 2 cases, 40 doz. ½ FRY'S COCOA.

EGGS.

Just 45 dozen, fresh from the West. We have some further lots due this week.

Soper & Moore,

Extracts From Another Letter From "Jack" lated February 4th-"Somewhere" i the Trenches. Dear Mother,-You will see by the date that this is my birthday. A of Burin, which left for the Grand wrist and arms. year of pleasure, hardship and adven-Banks several weeks ago and has not ture has passed, and I am still in the pink. On this date last year I was crew of 21, including the captain. The billeted in Paisley, and to end up a most enjoyable day, John C- and went up to the Pavilion in Glasgow. stretches between St. Pierre and Rose This morning I attended a service in he Y.M.C.A. hut, just near our camp, the first time for months. I must try and do better in the coming year, as I Placentia for the purpose of arthink I am having Sunday afternoons off after this—that is when we are in the rear area. There is quite a contrast between this date last year and to-day; last night I went across to the Y.M.C.A. Hut, and was surprised to find his honesty "Charlie Chaplin" at his usual game. It changed the atmosphere, and within a short time I found myself back in the Picture

Palace at Paisley. In those days I did not realize the horrors of war. It was simply a picnic, with cares unknown. After the few hours drill, dress up and off to the pictures with a fair Scotch lassie. Now it is quite the constant roar of guns sounding the message of death and destruction, and we are camping on what used to be a village, but there is not a brick to be seen now, so you can imagine the surroundings. Now, since we are familiar with this life, we do not imagine half that you do and in our out we are contented with their pho-os, and of these I have a fair share.

different, all we can hear to-night is moonlight nights. It is great for the roads, etc., but the chaps in the Milady'S Boudoir. trenches suffer a great deal, though we have very small percentage of day, and to-day got a big box from a than two pounds and commence by ex-telling you of it. in the shack, and we are really en- ful style. joying ourselves, as we got a new which takes away all the smoke. Sergeant Bill got some steak and head, then drop the club and allow i share is on the left-hand bottom cor-holding the paper—(grease spot.) pair of skin boots from Mr. Reuben? resuming the first position and bring They are lovely, and will be of great the clubs in front of the breast. benefit to me when the mild weather

Now I must finish off, as it is bedtime. We are off for another rest to-

Banking Schr. Overdue

Grave fears are entertained for the since been reported. On board are a ship is well provisioned and should she be jammed in the ice floe which Blanche the crew will not suffer from want of food. Mr. T. LeFeuvre reached the city by yesterday's train from ranging with the Government to despatch a steamer in search of the

If you have contracted a Cough or Cold don't keep on saying: "Oh, it's only a cold; that will wear off after a few days!" This is just where you sorest pain, and prayed for life in the sorest pain, and spent his sayings for fortable. We have a brazier going, and the boys are around chatting and telling of peace time days. The absence of the female sex is regretted.

I cannot complain of lib-health, as an feeling better than ever, so this something to be thankful for. The piece of thick flannel. weather for the past few days has Stafford's Drug Store (Theatre een very frosty, but everything is Hill) is open every night.

deal, though we have very small per- (LUB EXERCISES INVALUABLE. Indian clubs are inexpensive, re-Scotland. Last week had one from can be kept at hand for use at any and another from Mrs. ----, time can be easily carried when travwho also sends me magazines, etc., elling, and are one of the best means very often. Yesterday I got a box of of exercising for beauty and health. smokes from ——— for my birth- Get a pair of clubs weighing not more wee lass in Ayr, she knit the muffler ercising thoroughly with one club at herself. Last week I also received a a time. Stand erect, with chest nice parcel from that lady in Paisley thrown out, feet flat on floor and that, gave me the crock of jam about slightly separated, and grasp the this date last year, you remember me handles of the clubs close to the ball, giving full play to the wrists and en-Now there are only four of us left deavour to attain an easy and grace-

Standing as described, clubs held a brazier in to-day, with a funnel to it, sides, begin by elevating the left hand until it touches a little above th beans from the store, and we hashed to describe a circle at the back. When it up and just finished it off. Your the club starts the circle, give it a twirl, and the momentum of its weight ner of this sheet, where I have been will carry it around. At the completion of the circle, give the wrist a Did I tell you that I received the twirl, and bring it over the shoulder,

The next exercise is principally inawkward condition of the wrist which is so much in evidence. Standnorrow, so don't worry. With lots of ing with clubs held at sides, the arms are raised and extended outwardly in front of the breast as far as possible, arms crossed, and palms furned outward. Raise the clubs slowly to arms length, letting them hang over the shoulder. This is a simple and light safety of the schr. Nina Swimm, Capt. exercise and is of great benefit in John Jarvis, owned by LeFeuvre Bros. strengthening and developing the

> EMPTY LIFE. The strong man said, as he cast his eye on a string of cripples that hobbled by, "The lame, the halt and the blind are here; they're shy of teeth and they're deaf of ear, with their swollen feet and their stiffen-WALT MASON ed knees, they have more aches than a dog has fleas. Oh, what has life for such chaps as those, with their aches and pains and their endless woes? If ever the day shall come to me, when the bright blue heavens I cannot see, when my sinews ache and I've lost my pep, and I toil along with a cripple's step, when every breath is a groan or sigh, I'll turn my face to the wall and die." Fell sickness came, and his strength was spent; he left his bed, and his back was bent, his ears were deaf and his eyes were dim. Don't wait until that Cough or Cold and there was torture in every limb. develops into the Cough that you are not able to throw off.

Illis every breath was a groan or sigh.

ence of the female sex is regretted, sults. Price 25 cts. Postage 5 cts. H. B. CO.'S NEW QUARTERS. -The carpenters and painters who for The office fittings are of the latest design as would be seen in any first ass business houses in the city.

LATHROP

Make and Break erosene Engines. Strong, Heavy and Reliable.

Gray, Ferro and Fulton The Fulton is self-sparking; no coils or batteries required. SCRIPPS 4 CYCLE.

The standard in 4 cycle engines.

A. H. MURRAY, St. John's, Agent.

LENTEN DAINTIES

which enable you to have a different Lenten Dish for every meal.

No. 1. SALMON

No. 1 LOBSTER

COD TONGUES in Tins.

Hartley's

FRUIT PULPS.

Raspberry, Strawberry,

Pineapple.

COFFEE.

Chase & Sanborn's.

White House, Caraja,

Pure Gold, Green.

Roasted Coffee Beans.

TEAS.

Jams & Marmalades.

In Tins: FRESH HERRING. FINDON HADDOCK. KIPPERED HERRING SKIPPER SARDINES. FRENCH SARDINES. HALIBUT.

ANCHOVIES in Oil. KIPPERS FINNAN HADDIES.

No. 1 HERRING-Salt. BONELESS FISH. National Oats.

Quaker Oats, Force.

Royal, Crown, and Our Best. CEREALS. Rolled Oats. Scotch Oatmeal.

Grape-Nuts. "Roman Meal." Corn Flakes. Cream of Wheat. Rowring Bros., Ltd.

Grocery Department.

Just Arrived : Two Cars Special prices ex wharf.

T. A. MACNAB & Co.

Read The Telegram

The Imperial Tobacco and especially Mr. Hawvern manager, and his staff, are gratulated upon their tho and liberality in establish counter at their factory. tion is worthy of the highe and it is pleasing to know press in general has done tice, and the gratitude thus must be very encouraging Company.

The action is truly Chris of that brand for which th want more of the spirit of than is found in the ave of daily business. No ref elevate the world as will of Chirstian principles. so restricted the meanin principles, and so tied th their benefits are largely have become extremely and the higher ideals w cluded in the Christian been overlooked.

Every observant person conscious of the fact that great deal of suffering and that among the suffe men and children of classes predominate they toil for bread, and a gery. Many a factory have gone to their work a without their breakfast. delicate women have do The causes of this are matter of food, that the take of it at an early he find it difficult to be on In such cases there mus sity be suffering; nor can counter come in, and majority of the staff may need it, they all have the availing of its comfortscomfort will it afford to hands, and many a thles call forth from thei people may not underst anyone who has gone mill, and who know working hours mean, wi ceive the benefits which room offers the toilers.

counter at the Tobacco first of its kind in our c ever may follow this ex years to come, to the In co Co. belongs the Inf. Brig "which as on > t and attacl erful

In th

Home, Boy Send it to give ye