rocurable. An

....50c. pair 65c. pair

.....75c. pair

ters!

without a pair pair.

's Linen Collars.

G MAN? re is an

st you. ATER

$5.00. EATER in Navy k, very

Weare for the 00000000000000 utter!

ived: I. Butter,

abs.

JEAL ାରାତାରାରାରାରାରାରା

D WRECKING CO

YERS AND LIQUIDATOR

TRS
VASTE MATERIALS
LEAD, TIN and ANTIMONY
NZES AND LENGTHS
MENT.
HYDRAULIC, STEAM AND GAR WAYS IN STOCK.

WAYS IN STOCK. NSPORTATION BLD In Loving Memory.

his work to rest.
LYDIA CHANCEY.

Casualty List.

1765-Corporal Herbert J. Belbin.

The Star of the Sea Association eld their monthly meeting on Sunday ast and it was decided to celebrate oric on Ireland's Apostle. On Monday evening next, in the Star Hall, Miss Flynn, the talented organist, and her amateur troupe will produce the concert which has been in course of preparation for some weeks. The programme is interspers-

dr. Jones' Lecture.

esday evening in the Assembly om of the Springdale St. Commerdal School, a patriotic lecture on The trials and triumphs of our Ardes in Mesopotamia," beautifully ilrated by the School's new moving re machine, was delivered by W. I Jones, Esq., to the Commercial ig Classes, numbering over 70 is even at the end of the third About 50 visitors also attended, ing Capt. E. Dawe who proposda vote of thanks to the learned lecwer for the intellectual treat he had even, that would long be remembered and do much good; and both he and Mr. Jones complimented the Prin-dpai of the School, Mr. P. G. Butler, and the teachers, Mr. Bown (Accountency and English), Miss Harding graphy), Mr. Barnes (English and Arithmetic), Miss Crummey ing), Mr. Butler (Debating), iss Freeman (Telegraphy), on plendid appearance of their is that all had seen at work when ing, showing that a great deal to help forward the education-

Dame Fashion Looked on Approvingly When Such Handsome Styles Were Wrought.

To-day We Present for Your Inspection and Selection

THE NEWEST OF THE NEW in Ladies' Spring Suits

In Serges, Tweeds, Gabardines, Novelty Cloths and Checks, etc., Silk Lined.

These Suits are Moderately Priced for so early in the season.

OUR SPECIAL PRICE

Offers Marvellous Value.

The unfolding of these Charming New Styles offers much of fashion interest to the well dressed.

Marine Enquiry. ed to be asking what was the matter. I saw Snow, the steward. He said (Continued from 3rd page.) "Where are we?" There was no confusion, everyone was asking what Further cross-examined by Mr. it 3rd Australian Casualty Clearing Warren—Owing to the chief officer Station, France—Dangerously III, Tucker, being left ashore, I took his place. I would not know much about 3327-Private George Hudson, the equipment of the ship at that parbuch Cove, St. John's East. Shell ticular time. She did not ship any heard Miss Kehoe say was, "Well, we wind right side, both thighs and sea up to 10.30. No water came over will be safe at daylight." She died the boats.

To Mr. Dunfield-I have never ex-A Philips, St. John's West. Shell perienced this reversed current run- wardrobe. I had the cord attached wound back, right arm and buttocks. ning from the N.E. Several fishermen to the curtain, tied to the door to on the shore knew of the current, keep it closed. I was there till two or three days at a time running was taken out of that by one of the Renews, often noticed the current re- I was taken to the Marconi Room and Celebration versed. Sometimes it ran very strong- waited there till rescued. No one was

> To Capt. MacDermott-The officer vivor on board. fathoms.

To Mr. Warren-I am quite certain he said 90 fathoms.

Comfort and Style

for every Figure

Tall or short—stout or slim— there is a D & A Corset designed on a living model to fit you and

D & A Corsets are made in Canada and cost you half the price at which imported corsets must be sold

DOMINION CORSET CO.

mprove your style.

happened. Mr. Joe Moore was with me till 9 o'clock in the morning. He were in the same room. The last I kneeling up, possibly from fright or heart failure. I spent my time in the around 3 o'clock Monday morning. I strongly. The bosun who belonged to gunners and a man named Roberts. ly. I could not say if her bottom was refused admission to the Marconi Room. I thought I was the only sur-

from the bridge always superintends | Cross-examined by Mr. Warren.the soundings. The last sounding was The party who was in No. 1 Room not ordered by me, so I did not record could have lived had they remained the Feast of the great Saint with the mal ceremonies and festivities on landay next, the 18th inst. The mem-take the last myself and do not trust a hat. The Social Hall was all dehe will parade to the church, assist it to others. These men had been with melished. The linen department was Mass, receive Holy Communion in Capt. Martin for some time and were all intact. Moore left me about 9 or a body and be treated with a pane- to be trusted. Dooley said he got 90 10 o'clock. Moore escaped to the Marconi Room.

OPERATOR RECALLED.

Operator Cecil S. Carter, re-called, utes getting there. The light went for use when the ship broke down.

Photographic Paper. Velox Gas Light Printing Paper.

We have just received a fresh shipment of Velox Gaslight Paper of different Post Cards in packages and gross. Get your supply now at Tooton's,

The Kodak Store, 320 Water Street.

MAJOR SULLIVAN'S EVIDENCE. Major M. S. Sullivan.-I am a na-

Mr. John P. Kiely, Sworn:—I am a I hold first grade commercial tive of this country. I was a first resident of St. John's and manager of British and American certificates. I class passenger on the Florizel. I at with songs breathing a pure Irish the Nickel Theatre. I was a first class am employed by the American Marsphere and crowned with a passenger on the Florizel. I was in coni Co. I was born in Hayti, South time between 10 or 11 o'clock. I then darming operetta, promising well to the Smoking Room when she struck. America, but left there wifen I was 3 came on deck and walked up and Room and gave my flashlight to the be all previous performances. A I noticed nething unusual in the ship. menths old. I lived the greater part down with Mr. McNeil. It was snowce, at which Mr. Graney will disThere were two other passengers in of my life in London, England. I reing after 10 o'clock. I then went to Marconi Operator. The Captain then Ourse his popular notes, and a supthe Smoking Room, one was Capt. Joe sided in Boston about 2 years. I was bed about 11.15. I was first aroused Pr will follow the concert, so that a Kean and the other I don't know. We brought up in London, England. Op- by one of the passengers at 12 o'clock. sold old Irish night is in store for were all awake and dressed. I came erators must be British subjects. The I got up and dressed. I had no special all the patrons of Miss Flynn and her out of the Smoking Room and came wireless range of action is 250 miles reason for getting up. I went back to downstairs to get my coat. I met the by day. I had an auxiliary fitting the smoking room, Mr. Kiely and Capt. stewardess at the bottom of the with a range about 100 miles. My bat- Kean were there. I left there at 2 a. stairs. She came in my room and teries were charged the night before m. I went to the Social Hall and lay died there. I was about 5 or 6 min- we left. They were charged and ready down there to sleep. At 4.30 she was rolling heavily and some books were oming out of the bookcase. She was rolling badly then. Just shortly after I woke up some stewards came along we would like some fruit. He got two strain the lemon juice through a fine oranges. Mr. Munn was in his bed. cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then He said he never knew the Florizel to this lotion will keep fresh for months. She had been rolling hard for about smoothener and beautifier. 10 minutes. Several of the passengers | Just try it! Make up a quarter pint heard Capt. Kean say if there was Your druggist will sell three ounces any chance to get a boat out. They of orchard white at little cost, and ere cutting away the tackle of one any grocer will supply the lemons.

away the poat. Going forward to the could have a chance to get to the wheel house the lights were then out. boats. I saw Mr. Munn shortly before Captain Martin handed me a lifebelt he was washed overboard. I saw him from the chart room. I heard the standing by the cross rail, there was Captain tell the passengers that there a heavy sea struck the Smoking Room were lifebelts in a box near the fun- and when I looked again he was gone nel. I asked the Captain if there was There was no panic, everyone behaved any oil on board. Capt. Kean asked themselves splendidly. (In describthe same question. Captain Martin ing the rescue work Major Sullivan made several attempts to set off some gave great praise to the brave men rockets but with no success as they who came to their assistance.) Capt. were wet. I was in the wheel house Perry and crew and Capt. Dalton and when a heavy sea demolished the crew did well. Some Naval men room. Was holding on to the wheel, handled their boats with great skill. Capt, Kean was there, he had his leg There was a big swell and sea on at broken and his head cut. I did not the time. The Hawk was the neares stay there very long. We went out- ship to the Florizel. side and stood on the lee side. I went rail around the Captain's room. I I went back to my room. The lights held on for 12 hours. Several of were going till I got on dele When Open Every Night. those near me went overboard. Capt. I got on the bridge the lights were James went out over the side but got out. I did not see Captain Kean on back again. The 12 or 15 who were the bridge till he was brought there holding on died gradually, and fell by Captain Martin and others. Capt. Lumbago, Neuralgia and all Aches across each other. Among those I re- Kean said she will pitch some when and Pains, cognized John Connolly, Second Officer King and several Spaniards, also young Snow who was going to join the Flying Corps. There were only two alive besides myself. I lay down and To Mr. Blackwood.—I observed the Lung Trouble. held on to a wire cable which a heavy slob ice. I am not an authority on it. sea swept over. When I got to the I observed it over the side of the ship fiddley one of the men who followed on more than one occasion. It could me was washed over. When I got not be very heavy, if it was thick the there I saw Capt. James, R. Burnham, ship would not be rolling so much. I Jim Dwyer, a chap from Argentia and would call it medium slob. I would one Spaniard. The second cook came imagine any sleb would make it easier 8.30 this morning in the R. C. Catheone Spaniard. The second cook came imagine any sieb would make it easier dral for the repose of the soul of the shortly after, that was Sunday for the ship would make it easier dral for the repose of the soul of the late Right Rev. Mons. St. John. Interafternoon. I went to the Marconi course I am not a sailor.

Room. After staying there a while I The procedings adjourned at 5.45 ment will be in the priests' plot at went back to the fiddley and remained till 8 o'clock this afternoon. there till 2 e'clock the next morning rigged up a life line from the Marconi

Lemons Whiten and Beautify the Skin! Make Cheap Lotion

The juice of two fresh lemons and turned on the lights, they said a strained into a bottle containing three skylight was broken in by the sea and ounces of orchard white makes a that water was flowing in. My state- , whole quarter pint of the most reroom was No. 2. I went into Mr. markable lemon skin beautifier at Munn's room which was No. 1. I was about the cost one must pay for a there a couple of minutes when Mr. small jar of the ordinary cold Snow, the purser, came and asked if creams. Care should be taken to roll like that. I have travelled consid- Every woman knows that lemon juice erably by sea. I said I must go on is used to bleach and remove such deck to see what it was like. When blemishes as freckles, sallowness and halfway down the passage she struck. tan and is the ideal skin softener, rushed out. First they thought it was of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion heavy ice. I rushed back to Mr. Munn and massage it daily into the face, and said we are on the rocks. I rush-neck, arms and hands. It should naed into my room for my coat and grip. turally help to whiten, soften, fresh-We could not get out through the en and bring out the hidden roses and Social Hall so I went aft to the Smek-ing Room and got on the lee side. I ful for rough, red hands.

M. C. L. I. Debate.

ce of the church as a moral and and showed the negative had wo heir point. Mr. S. Woods presided. The debate for next week is, "Should elergymen take an active interest in Wedding Bells.

GARLAND-ROWSELL.

St. Thomas's Church, Pushthrough, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Feb. 7th, the contracting parties being Miss Annie Rowsell, daughter of Mr. Jonathan Rowsell, and Mr. John Garland. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. Hall, Rector of Pushably supported by Mr. Philip Row-Mr. and Mrs. Garland left for Gaultois their future home. We wish them

Stafford's Drug Store, Theatre Hill, will be open every night till 9.30. Stafford's Liniment for Rheumatism, Prepared only by DR. F. STAFFORD & SON.

when I again returned to the Marconi Room and gave my flashlight to the And the Worst is Yet to Come-

