This is taken to signify the beginning of a new period of terriorism which veteran Irish politicians expect, include other assassinations and attempts to destroy Government buildings and public works. Two policemen were guarding a carload of explosives intended for a mine, when they were surprised by masked men, the policemen were shot dead and the explosives carried off. The immediate sequel was a proclamation placing Ti_perary under the Crimes Act, which means a regime much like the occupied German cities are undergoing. All meetings are prohibited, and nobody can pass in or out of the district without permits. None of the residents may be out of doors after seven o'clock, in the evening, without a permit.
