

TO-DAY'S MESSAGES.

CANADA'S RAILWAY EARNINGS.

TORONTO, Ont., June 20. The annual report of the Canadian National Railways, issued to-day, shows that gross earnings increased by one million last year, with passenger receipts down ten and one-half per cent, and freight revenue up 12 per cent. The net deficit on operations was sixteen millions, reduced by half from the previous year. The President's report says the system is in better condition than ever before.

MAJORITY FOR TREATY.

DUBLIN, June 20. Results of the elections are still incomplete, and final figures in some important constituencies will not be announced until Wednesday afternoon. Including all uncontested seats the results are known in the case of one hundred members. Of these the pro-Treaty panel won 30, which, with uncontested seats, gives them a total to date of forty-seven. The anti-Treaty panel survived the election in thirteen seats, which, with uncontested seats, gives them thirty. Successes of Independents have thus far been limited to three seats. The anti-Treaty panelists far more severely than the others. All told, of the first hundred elected, seventy support the Treaty and thirty oppose it. No member of the Provisional Government so far, has gone down to defeat.

WHERE IS THE LEAGUE?

LONDON, June 21. War has broken out between Russia and Afghanistan, as a result of an anti-Bolshevik movement in Turkestan, according to a Telegraph dispatch.

MORE DISORDERS.

BELFAST, June 21. More cases of shooting and incendiarism occurred last night, the casualties being two killed and four wounded. A bomb thrown into a room, where five women were sitting, wrecked the furniture but did not injure the women.

ONE RESULT.

TORONTO, June 21. The net deficit carried on the balance sheet of Canadian National Railways at the end of 1921, was $15,157,760.

In constituencies where there were contests on Friday, fifteen have already been declared defeated. Results announced to-day show the removal of the best known personalities in Dail Eireann, and the possible effects of their defeats are being widely discussed. Of six women members, all Anti-Treaty, only Mary MacSwiney survived in the contests, and Mrs. Kate O'Callaghan, who was returned unopposed. Mrs. Pearse, whose two sons were executed for their part in Easter week rebellion 1916, was defeated in County Dublin.

Ill-Treated Child.

SCENE ON BANNERMAN STREET.

A scene was created on Bannerman Street about 1 p.m. to-day and rumours of a murder were flying everywhere. The cause was found to be the ill-treatment of her step-daughter by a Mrs. Harry Gardiner, a resident of the street. The woman beat her ten-year-old step-child with a strap to which a buckle was attached, splitting the youngster's head open. With blood streaming down her face the child rushed out, screaming, into the street. Within a few minutes hundreds of people had gathered round the neighbourhood and the police had to be called to regulate traffic.

A Fair Exchange.

TOOK FUR FOR WAGES.

A young girl was charged before Judge Morris this morning with the larceny of jewellery and clothing from a house in which she was a domestic servant. Accused pleaded guilty only to the larceny of a fur. She took this, she said, because there were wages due her. The mistress told accused that she would not pay her full wages because she was not worth it. Mr. McGrath for the plaintiff said his client did not wish to press for punishment. A statement made by the accused was put in. She claimed plaintiff owed her $23. The Judge said that if the plaintiff owed accused any wages she had her civil remedies. She had no right to take the fur. The case was dismissed.

Japanese Metals.

The Japanese are famed not only for their skill in making decorative articles, but also for the beauty of the materials used. It is said that the secret of the composition of some of their alloys of brass and copper has only lately been revealed. The finest Japanese brass, called "shinchi," consists of 10 parts of copper and five of zinc. Another very beautiful alloy, named "shadiko," to which splendid hues are imparted by treatment with acids, is formed by mixing gold and copper, the proportion of gold varying from 1 to 10 per cent. of the entire mass.—Washington Star.

The Burnstein Case.

INJUNCTION ORDER CONTINUED.

The hearing in the Burnstein case arising out of an injunction order occupied the attention of Mr. Justice Kent, in Supreme Court Chambers this forenoon. Burnstein was ejected by the Supreme Court Bailiffs from a premises on Water Street some time ago. After the Bailiffs had removed the goods from the premises in question Burnstein again took possession and has since held it. An injunction pending further action was issued by the Court on the application of Mr. L. E. Emerson, who represents Alleen Twyden and James Anthony Proude agents of the property. The case to-day was an application that the injunction granted by the Court June 16th, 1922 be continued until after the trial of an action, or until a further order, and that the costs of this application and of the application made by the plaintiffs on the 16th day of June be costs in the cause. Mr. L. E. Emerson for the plaintiffs stated that during the interim all the revenue from the property which was a valuable one had ceased. Mr. Burnstein who appeared on his own behalf made a plea that no writ had been served on him, and went on with a statement that the Bailiffs had broken into his place at 6 o'clock in the morning. The trial judge stopped the witness telling him that the incident he was speaking about had nothing to do with the present action, which was for an injunction of restraint. Mr. Justice Kent—"Did Bailiff Roll serve you with a writ on the 19th June?" Burnstein—"No."

Bailiff Roll called, sworn and examined. He deposed to serving a writ on the defendant on Monday, June 19th at 4.30 p.m. Mr. Burnstein replied that this was but a day or two ago and that he was referring to the time that the bailiffs came and dispossessed him. Their action was illegal, said Mr. Burnstein.

Mr. Justice Kent—"That has nothing to do with the present action. Did you break into the place since it was taken possession of by order of the Court?"

Mr. Burnstein did not reply and was called to the witness stand. After being sworn he reiterated his statement adding that his cutting table which was part of his means of livelihood was left in the building. Mr. Justice Kent again had to stop the recital, and asked, "Did you or did you not break in and take possession of the premises after receiving the order of the Court?"

Mr. Burnstein—"I went in after my goods."

Mr. Justice Kent—"When an order of this Court is made it has to be obeyed."

The continuation of the injunction was granted. Up to this afternoon Mr. Burnstein had possession of the place.

Mrs. Cleary's Fancy Dress Ball has been postponed until further notice.—June 21, 1922
