Allied Commissions Given Full Authority.

Mudania Convention Must Be Upheld
—Abandonment of Lausanne Conference Considered—Congressional Elections in United States—French Minister Prefers Security to Payment

ALLIES ARE FIRM.
CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 7. The Allied Commissions in Constantinople have been given full authority to declare a state of siege or to take any other means to preserve order. It is now certain that the Allied authorities here will deal with attempts at disturbance or infringement of the Mudania Convention in a drastic manner. The British, French and Italian are as one in their determination to check the progress which the Kemalists have made in this direction. Lieut-General Harcourt, Commander-in-Chief of the British Forces, informed Rafet Pasha, would not permit any usurpation of Allied authority. The Kemalists have attempted to take over customs revenues, but the British have decided to operate the customs themselves. The calling of three additional classes to the Turkish colors interpreted here as merely a show force.

ABANDONED.
LONDON, Nov. 7. The attitude assumed by Turkish Nationalists is declared official circles to-day that the Lausanne Conference may be postponed to the end of the present month and finally abandoned. The Allied forces, working in harmony, agreed upon a policy of resistance to the Turkish demands for the evacuation of Constantinople. The British forces there are said to be "quite sufficient" to protect the population. A test of Allied authority is being made in the case of the Kemalists' arrest and condemnation to death of Ali Kemal Bey, editor of an anti-Nationalist newspaper.

A SECOND HUNGER STRIKE.
DUBLIN, Nov. 7. The other woman arrested on the same day as Mary MacSwiney, joined her to-day in the hunger strike at Mount Joy prison. Miss MacSwiney was brought back weak after her experience to-day and requested she might be permitted to see Dr. Kathleen Lynn, but her application was refused.

THE RETURNS AT MIDNIGHT.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7. At midnight the Congressional returns were complete from only seven States. At that hour 119 Democrats and 67 Republicans, out of a total of 435 had been reported. Those figures are in no wise indicative of the political complexion of the next Congress as large blocks of districts have not been heard from. (The standing of the parties in the present House is Republicans 296, Democrats 130, Socialist 1, Vacant 8. The returns so far suggest the probability of a large gain by the Democrats, even if they fail to secure a majority.—Ed.)

NEW YORK GOES DEMOCRAT.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7. The Republican State Committee, with little more than half the returns counted, tonight conceded that the Democrats had won sweeping victories at the polls, defeating Governor Miller, Senator Colder and other candidates on the State tickets. A majority in both branches of the Legislature is claimed, however.

SMITH BEATS MILLER.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7. It is conceded that former Governor Alfred E. Smith, Democrat, is elected over Governor Nathan L. Miller, Republican, and Royal S. Copeland, over William H. Chalder, for Senator.

WOULD SOONER SECURITY.

PARIS, Nov. 7. France might better forego payment from Germany than be endangered by a new attack from a resuscitated country across the Rhine. Louis Loucheur, former Minister of Liberated Regions, told the Chamber of Deputies to-day. "If by any of these plans" he said, discussing the proposals for rehabilitation, "Germany is made strong, what will become of France's security. I tell you bluntly that between not being paid and not being in security I would rather be in security." The statement brought strong applause. Premier Poincaré interrupted M. Loucheur's suggestions for a change in the administration of the Rhineland with the declaration that the territory will not be evacuated until Germany has fulfilled the treaty requirements. M. Loucheur urged the Chamber to get together and try and find a remedy for the country's financial condition "or soon we will be at the brink of an abyss."

MEETING OF PARLIAMENT POSTPONED.

LONDON, Nov. 7. The opening day of Parliament has been postponed from Nov. 20th to Nov. 23rd.

EIGHTY DEAD.

SPANGHER, Pa., Nov. 7. The list of dead in yesterday's mine explosion numbers eighty out of one hundred and twelve in the mine at the time.

Spain and Prohibition.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir:—Your correspondent Mr. Warwick Smith has shaken my belief that "fish is the price that Mr. Coaker makes it." He asks "why should the people of this country receive less for their fish in order that the prejudices of some and the profits of others... should not be interfered with?" In other words why should the Government of the day "make fish of one and flesh of another" by holding on to a Prohibition law which they don't want to enforce and which they don't want to enforce and not "outright sales" (when no sales of any kind can be made) for the slump in cod. But he seems to answer this (vide his letter) by assuming the Controller controls the situation. However, with his usual tolerance Mr. Smith does not blame him when he nets or should it be seines to himself and his department wealth and influence.

Lord Dunsen in his book "Pastimes and Pastimes" tells the story of a temperance society in San Francisco the rules of which were that "nothing stronger than wine, beer and cider shall be drunk on the premises unless any member be suffering under a sense of discouragement, in which case whiskey is allowed." May not the Controller well take judicial notice that the present Government has created in the citizens a sense of discouragement until the "disease" is epidemic and hence is dispensing for medicinal purposes only and not for wealth or influence. But Lord Dunsen also tells how Sir Henry Thompson, a famous surgeon, unable to drink himself used to experiment as to the effects of various kinds of alcohol in promoting bright conversation among his guests. He came to the opinion that whisky was the worst and really good red Bordeaux (wine) the best. This latter or its like can be got in Spain and if its importation will raise the price of our fish and our depressed spirits too why let us "raise the roof" to raise this prohibition that does not prohibit.

Yours truly,
EQUITY.

Contestants in Training.
INDOOR SPORTS MEET NOV. 20TH.
The contestants for the annual Indoor Sports, which event takes place in the Prince of Wales Rink, on Monday, Nov. 20th, are rapidly getting into shape for the big meet. Last night several of our well known runners covered their respective distances in excellent time, and in a manner which was pleasing to the many "rail birds" that attended.
The nets for the basket ball already have been placed in position and the first try out took place last evening between the St. Bon's and Cadet teams. The Methodist College lads will probably arrange for a practice the next available night. The Committee intend to interview the lady basketball players to-day, asking them if it is their intention to compete. It is said that the girls of the Mercy Convent and Clover Club can produce excellent material. A schedule of practice hours for the competitors has been drawn up, which should work out more satisfactorily than in the past. On the regular practice nights the basket ball players will use the arena from 7.30 to 8 p.m. The runners will follow from 8 to 9, while the basketballers have the use of the floor until the closing hour.
The entries are now opened for competitors taking part in the various events, and names will be received by members of the Committee any practice evening at the rink. The track which is sixteen laps to the mile will be marked out in a few days. The Junior race for boys, which proved to be the most exciting race on the programme last year, will again become one of the feature events.

Judging by the numbers of boys already in training. The Committee are leaving nothing undone for the comfort of the athletes. A dressing room, well heated, is always at their disposal any practice evening at the rink.
