active men to minister in their interests, and not give them preachers who were incapacitated both bodily and mentally for the hardships that must be endured. When the Indian was converted he in many cases was incomparably superior to the white man regarding the strict observance of the spiritual law, and many acts of devotion to duty he related were very forcible illustrations of this fact. The speaker's earnest remarks left the congregation many points upon which to think regarding the great work being accomplished by the Anglican Church in the far north mission field.

Charged with Stealing $184.

On Dec. 12 Mrs. John Smith went to a pertormance at the Opera House, leaving $184 in cash in a bureau drawer at the residence of Mrs. Webb, Thames street, whomshe was attending during illness. When she returned the money was gone, and so was young Thomas Webb, who took a trip to the States. The police got wind of his return and arrested him Sunday. In the Police Court yesterday he pleaded not guilty to a charge of larceny and was remanded for a week.
