

False Alarm!

Fatal Panic in a Jewish Synagogue in Russia.

Nine Persons Killed and a Hundred Injured.

Ravages of Cholera in Russia on the Decline.

Germany's Navy to be Largely Increased.

Declined the Viceroyship of India.

The Wicked Anarchists.

Germany's Navy to be Largely Increased.

The German Navy.

Bismarck Better.

The Lost Ironclad.

The Money Movement.

Gladstone Leaves Edinburgh.

Election of Lord Mayor.

The Striking Miners.

Cholera Reports.

Fatal Panic.

Warsaw, Sept. 29.—A false alarm of fire was given to-day in the synagogue at Kalwary near Suwalki. The building was crowded with Jews at worship. A panic followed and after a struggle of 10 minutes two hundred persons were killed and a hundred injured. The cause of the panic was a fire in the roof. Fifteen persons were wounded. The fire was caused by a candle which had fallen on the roof.

The British Navy.

Bogus News from Brazil.

London, Sept. 29.—The manager of the London and Brazilian Bank has received a cable dispatch from Rio Janeiro stating that one of the bank's staff in this city was killed during the late bombardment by rebel warships. The manager says the bulk of published news regarding officers in Late Canadian News.

A Cobourg Man Discabwelled by a Bull.

Acquittal of Pennefather, Charged With Robbing the Standard Bank of $7,500.

R. H. McCreary is still in jail at Ottawa awaiting bail.

Ontario is winning almost every prize at the Chicago live stock show.

The first frost of the season occurred at Edmonton on Saturday night, Sept. 16.

More addresses were presented to Lord and Lady Aberdeen at Montreal on Thursday.

The Royal Commission on prohibition will resume its investigations on Oct. 2, in Brockville.

Hamilton will probably send two financial agents to England to arrange for the negotiation of the new city loan.

At the Assizes in Chatham, in Bright vs. Bolander, action to set aside a will, a verdict for the defendant was given.

The Williamson Book Company of Toronto has gone into voluntary liquidation.

The assets are more than double the liabilities.

Pennefather has been acquitted at Chatham Assizes of the charge of robbing the Standard Bank of $7,500 on the 5th of last October.

Thos. P. Carey, aged 52, a billiard hall manager, employed by Samuel May, Toronto, committed suicide Thursday by taking a dose of carbolic acid.

At Belleville the grand jury has returned a true bill for murder against Wm. Lusk, who killed Jacob Shoemaker in a row at Chatham on Saturday last. Lusk is still at large.

W. J. Austin, of Milwaukee, has a $25,000 suit against Goldie & McCulloch, the Galt safe manufacturers, for the latter's alleged infringement of the former's patent feed water heater.

Edward Leary (colored), aged 20 years, a deaf mute, is charged with brutally murdering Mrs. H. W. Leary on Wednesday at her residence, near Fredericton, N. B. He was arrested.

Fred Sharp, the Canadian Pacific Railway agent at Windsor, received word Thursday of the death of his father-in-law, Mr. Rupert, of St. Marys. Mr. and Mrs. Sharp left for there at noon.

A Salvation Army man named James Beardsley, aged 34, tall, stout, with sandy hair, is missing from his home on Mountain avenue, Hamilton. He left there on Monday last, and has not been heard of since.

A horrible fatality occurred on Tuesday in the streets of the city. A horse-drawn carriage, driven by a man named Healey, a feeble old gentleman of 70 years of age, was gored to death by a bull and shockingly mangled.

The success of the Ontario breeders of Leicester sheep has been repeated in the Lincoln classes, all the prizes but one and one fourth going to Ontario.

The prize winners include Gibson & Walker, of Ilderton; Wm. Oliver, Avonbank, and D. A. Campbell, of Windsor.

Sir Richard Webster, chairman of the Royal British Commission to the World's Fair, said that what struck him most forcibly in the Canadian department was the Ontario educational exhibit, which he considered the most beautiful and instructive in the whole exhibition.

The body of James Beardsley, who has been missing from Hamilton since Monday last, was found in a field two miles west of the city limits on Thursday. Alongside the body was found a bottle, one labeled chloroform and the other laudanum. He was still in the field.

S. Buch, teamster for D. W. Alexander's tannery, Port Elgin, was run over Thursday afternoon by the wagon at a crossing. One of the wheels passed over his left side, fracturing the skull, breaking the left collarbone and bruising his body seriously. But there are good hopes of his recovery.

The Malsons Bank, Toronto, has obtained from the court an order for the payment to it of all debts due the firm of Cooper & Smith by its creditors to satisfy the bank judgment of $73,149.21. An additional writ for $22,000 has been filed against Cooper & Smith by the bank, which carries their claim to over $100,000.

At the Assizes in Orangeville, in the suit of Fawcett vs. the village of Dundalk, the plaintiff was awarded $2,000 damages. The suit was for the village's refusal to allow a Dundalk horse to graze on the village property.

The verdict means a tax of $4 on every man, woman and child, adding the corporation.

In Squire vs. Torrie, an action for damages for the destruction of the last of the kind ever held in Canada. It opens in Temperance Hall on Oct. 3.

The annual meeting for 1893 of the Council of the Dominion Alliance will be held in Temperance Hall, Toronto, commencing at 9 a. m., on Thursday, Oct. 5.

Articles That May Be Put on the Free List in the States.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—It is intimated that the ways and means committee has decided to place the following articles on the free list:

Wool, binder twine, cotton bagging and ties, lead, tin, iron ore, coal, timber (hewn, sawed and manufactured), salt, hemp, needles, copper ore, vegetable, meats, game, poultry, eggs, beans and seeds.

Fierce Forest Fires.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—A special from Durango, Mexico, says that disastrous forest fires, attended by heavy loss of life, have raged in the Sierra Madre Mountains, 150 miles southeast of there for several days. Thousands of acres of timber and grass have been destroyed and several small villages swept away. Many families are reported missing and they are believed to have been cut off and have perished in the flames.

The Grain Standard.

TORONTO, Sept. 28.—The board of examiners appointed to fix the grain standard were in session yesterday. The standard and all round is much the same as last year, excepting, perhaps, in barley, which is lighter. Some new standards were made in peas, which are to be recommended to the government for adoption. In mummy and blackeye peas two new grades have been decided upon, also that No. 1 oats shall weigh 34 pounds to the bushel, and No. 2, 32 pounds; while No. 1 rye will have to show 58 pounds. No. 2 will be required to come up to 56 pounds. The standard for wheat is expected to be about the same as last year.

Late Canadian News.

A Cobourg Man Discabwelled by a Bull.

Acquittal of Pennefather, Charged With Robbing the Standard Bank of $7,500.

R. H. McCreary is still in jail at Ottawa awaiting bail.

Ontario is winning almost every prize at the Chicago live stock show.

The first frost of the season occurred at Edmonton on Saturday night, Sept. 16.

More addresses were presented to Lord and Lady Aberdeen at Montreal on Thursday.

The Royal Commission on prohibition will resume its investigations on Oct. 2, in Brockville.

Hamilton will probably send two financial agents to England to arrange for the negotiation of the new city loan.

At the Assizes in Chatham, in Bright vs. Bolander, action to set aside a will, a verdict for the defendant was given.

The Williamson Book Company of Toronto has gone into voluntary liquidation.

The assets are more than double the liabilities.

Pennefather has been acquitted at Chatham Assizes of the charge of robbing the Standard Bank of $7,500 on the 5th of last October.

Thos. P. Carey, aged 52, a billiard hall manager, employed by Samuel May, Toronto, committed suicide Thursday by taking a dose of carbolic acid.

At Belleville the grand jury has returned a true bill for murder against Wm. Lusk, who killed Jacob Shoemaker in a row at Chatham on Saturday last. Lusk is still at large.

W. J. Austin, of Milwaukee, has a $25,000 suit against Goldie & McCulloch, the Galt safe manufacturers, for the latter's alleged infringement of the former's patent feed water heater.

Edward Leary (colored), aged 20 years, a deaf mute, is charged with brutally murdering Mrs. H. W. Leary on Wednesday at her residence, near Fredericton, N. B. He was arrested.

Fred Sharp, the Canadian Pacific Railway agent at Windsor, received word Thursday of the death of his father-in-law, Mr. Rupert, of St. Marys. Mr. and Mrs. Sharp left for there at noon.

A Salvation Army man named James Beardsley, aged 34, tall, stout, with sandy hair, is missing from his home on Mountain avenue, Hamilton. He left there on Monday last, and has not been heard of since.

A horrible fatality occurred on Tuesday in the streets of the city. A horse-drawn carriage, driven by a man named Healey, a feeble old gentleman of 70 years of age, was gored to death by a bull and shockingly mangled.

The success of the Ontario breeders of Leicester sheep has been repeated in the Lincoln classes, all the prizes but one and one fourth going to Ontario.

The prize winners include Gibson & Walker, of Ilderton; Wm. Oliver, Avonbank, and D. A. Campbell, of Windsor.

Sir Richard Webster, chairman of the Royal British Commission to the World's Fair, said that what struck him most forcibly in the Canadian department was the Ontario educational exhibit, which he considered the most beautiful and instructive in the whole exhibition.

The body of James Beardsley, who has been missing from Hamilton since Monday last, was found in a field two miles west of the city limits on Thursday. Alongside the body was found a bottle, one labeled chloroform and the other laudanum. He was still in the field.

S. Buch, teamster for D. W. Alexander's tannery, Port Elgin, was run over Thursday afternoon by the wagon at a crossing. One of the wheels passed over his left side, fracturing the skull, breaking the left collarbone and bruising his body seriously. But there are good hopes of his recovery.

The Malsons Bank, Toronto, has obtained from the court an order for the payment to it of all debts due the firm of Cooper & Smith by its creditors to satisfy the bank judgment of $73,149.21. An additional writ for $22,000 has been filed against Cooper & Smith by the bank, which carries their claim to over $100,000.

At the Assizes in Orangeville, in the suit of Fawcett vs. the village of Dundalk, the plaintiff was awarded $2,000 damages. The suit was for the village's refusal to allow a Dundalk horse to graze on the village property.

The verdict means a tax of $4 on every man, woman and child, adding the corporation.

In Squire vs. Torrie, an action for damages for the destruction of the last of the kind ever held in Canada. It opens in Temperance Hall on Oct. 3.

The annual meeting for 1893 of the Council of the Dominion Alliance will be held in Temperance Hall, Toronto, commencing at 9 a. m., on Thursday, Oct. 5.

Articles That May Be Put on the Free List in the States.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—It is intimated that the ways and means committee has decided to place the following articles on the free list:

Wool, binder twine, cotton bagging and ties, lead, tin, iron ore, coal, timber (hewn, sawed and manufactured), salt, hemp, needles, copper ore, vegetable, meats, game, poultry, eggs, beans and seeds.

Fierce Forest Fires.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—A special from Durango, Mexico, says that disastrous forest fires, attended by heavy loss of life, have raged in the Sierra Madre Mountains, 150 miles southeast of there for several days. Thousands of acres of timber and grass have been destroyed and several small villages swept away. Many families are reported missing and they are believed to have been cut off and have perished in the flames.

The Grain Standard.

TORONTO, Sept. 28.—The board of examiners appointed to fix the grain standard were in session yesterday. The standard and all round is much the same as last year, excepting, perhaps, in barley, which is lighter. Some new standards were made in peas, which are to be recommended to the government for adoption. In mummy and blackeye peas two new grades have been decided upon, also that No. 1 oats shall weigh 34 pounds to the bushel, and No. 2, 32 pounds; while No. 1 rye will have to show 58 pounds. No. 2 will be required to come up to 56 pounds. The standard for wheat is expected to be about the same as last year.

Late Canadian News.

A Cobourg Man Discabwelled by a Bull.

Acquittal of Pennefather, Charged With Robbing the Standard Bank of $7,500.

R. H. McCreary is still in jail at Ottawa awaiting bail.

Ontario is winning almost every prize at the Chicago live stock show.

The first frost of the season occurred at Edmonton on Saturday night, Sept. 16.

More addresses were presented to Lord and Lady Aberdeen at Montreal on Thursday.

The Royal Commission on prohibition will resume its investigations on Oct. 2, in Brockville.

Hamilton will probably send two financial agents to England to arrange for the negotiation of the new city loan.

At the Assizes in Chatham, in Bright vs. Bolander, action to set aside a will, a verdict for the defendant was given.

The Williamson Book Company of Toronto has gone into voluntary liquidation.

The assets are more than double the liabilities.

Pennefather has been acquitted at Chatham Assizes of the charge of robbing the Standard Bank of $7,500 on the 5th of last October.

Thos. P. Carey, aged 52, a billiard hall manager, employed by Samuel May, Toronto, committed suicide Thursday by taking a dose of carbolic acid.

At Belleville the grand jury has returned a true bill for murder against Wm. Lusk, who killed Jacob Shoemaker in a row at Chatham on Saturday last. Lusk is still at large.

W. J. Austin, of Milwaukee, has a $25,000 suit against Goldie & McCulloch, the Galt safe manufacturers, for the latter's alleged infringement of the former's patent feed water heater.

Edward Leary (colored), aged 20 years, a deaf mute, is charged with brutally murdering Mrs. H. W. Leary on Wednesday at her residence, near Fredericton, N. B. He was arrested.

Fred Sharp, the Canadian Pacific Railway agent at Windsor, received word Thursday of the death of his father-in-law, Mr. Rupert, of St. Marys. Mr. and Mrs. Sharp left for there at noon.

A Salvation Army man named James Beardsley, aged 34, tall, stout, with sandy hair, is missing from his home on Mountain avenue, Hamilton. He left there on Monday last, and has not been heard of since.

A horrible fatality occurred on Tuesday in the streets of the city. A horse-drawn carriage, driven by a man named Healey, a feeble old gentleman of 70 years of age, was gored to death by a bull and shockingly mangled.

The success of the Ontario breeders of Leicester sheep has been repeated in the Lincoln classes, all the prizes but one and one fourth going to Ontario.

The prize winners include Gibson & Walker, of Ilderton; Wm. Oliver, Avonbank, and D. A. Campbell, of Windsor.

Sir Richard Webster, chairman of the Royal British Commission to the World's Fair, said that what struck him most forcibly in the Canadian department was the Ontario educational exhibit, which he considered the most beautiful and instructive in the whole exhibition.

The body of James Beardsley, who has been missing from Hamilton since Monday last, was found in a field two miles west of the city limits on Thursday. Alongside the body was found a bottle, one labeled chloroform and the other laudanum. He was still in the field.

S. Buch, teamster for D. W. Alexander's tannery, Port Elgin, was run over Thursday afternoon by the wagon at a crossing. One of the wheels passed over his left side, fracturing the skull, breaking the left collarbone and bruising his body seriously. But there are good hopes of his recovery.

The Malsons Bank, Toronto, has obtained from the court an order for the payment to it of all debts due the firm of Cooper & Smith by its creditors to satisfy the bank judgment of $73,149.21. An additional writ for $22,000 has been filed against Cooper & Smith by the bank, which carries their claim to over $100,000.

At the Assizes in Orangeville, in the suit of Fawcett vs. the village of Dundalk, the plaintiff was awarded $2,000 damages. The suit was for the village's refusal to allow a Dundalk horse to graze on the village property.

The verdict means a tax of $4 on every man, woman and child, adding the corporation.

In Squire vs. Torrie, an action for damages for the destruction of the last of the kind ever held in Canada. It opens in Temperance Hall on Oct. 3.

The annual meeting for 1893 of the Council of the Dominion Alliance will be held in Temperance Hall, Toronto, commencing at 9 a. m., on Thursday, Oct. 5.

Articles That May Be Put on the Free List in the States.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—It is intimated that the ways and means committee has decided to place the following articles on the free list:

Wool, binder twine, cotton bagging and ties, lead, tin, iron ore, coal, timber (hewn, sawed and manufactured), salt, hemp, needles, copper ore, vegetable, meats, game, poultry, eggs, beans and seeds.

Fierce Forest Fires.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—A special from Durango, Mexico, says that disastrous forest fires, attended by heavy loss of life, have raged in the Sierra Madre Mountains, 150 miles southeast of there for several days. Thousands of acres of timber and grass have been destroyed and several small villages swept away. Many families are reported missing and they are believed to have been cut off and have perished in the flames.

The Grain Standard.

TORONTO, Sept. 28.—The board of examiners appointed to fix the grain standard were in session yesterday. The standard and all round is much the same as last year, excepting, perhaps, in barley, which is lighter. Some new standards were made in peas, which are to be recommended to the government for adoption. In mummy and blackeye peas two new grades have been decided upon, also that No. 1 oats shall weigh 34 pounds to the bushel, and No. 2, 32 pounds; while No. 1 rye will have to show 58 pounds. No. 2 will be required to come up to 56 pounds. The standard for wheat is expected to be about the same as last year.

TAMMANY WINS

In the Race With Lamplighter for $10,000.

The Chestnut Does the Mile and a Quarter in 1:46.

THE TURF.

THE RACING EVENT OF THE SEASON.

New York, Sept. 28.—Guttenberg was the scene of the turf event of the decade this afternoon, namely, the great match race between Tammany and Lamplighter.

The race was a mile and a quarter for $2,500 a side and $5,000 added money.

"Snapper" Garrison rode Tammany and Fred Tatal piloted Lamplighter. The track was in perfect condition and both horses in fine fettle.

The race took place in the presence of 15,000 persons. Tammany easily vanquished the son of Spendthrift and Torchlight, the chestnut romping home the easiest kind of a winner by three lengths in the time of 2:04. This time establishes a track record for the distance.

RACING AT HAMILTON.

HAMILTON, Ont., Sept. 28.—Good weather and a good track favored the Hamilton Trotting Association for the third day's events in the fall meeting, but the crowd was not as large as yesterday.

The last heat in the 2:25 trot or pace for $300, three heats of which had been run yesterday, was won by Belmont Chief today; time, 2:20. The money is divided as follows: Thomas Brownridge's (Brampton) Belmont Chief, first; Hiram Shain's (London) Kiste Goff, second; H. A. Walker's (Sydney) No. 1, third; Beattie Bros. (Wingham) Wanda, fourth; Scott & Henning's (Caledonia) Demand, fifth; W. Stroud's (Hamilton) Nettie V, sixth; J. H. Penman's (Windsor) Prince Frederick, seventh; Dr. McConnell's (Toronto) Dick Smith, eighth.

Second race for 3-year-old pacers, one mile; purse $210—H. Scott's (Caledonia) Dolce, first; James Burgess' (Hamilton) Joe W, second; D. M. McLaughlin's (Little M, third; time, 2:23.

The third and fourth races were not finished to-day on account of darkness. Three heats in the 2:27 trot were not off, and four heats in the 2:13 trot or pace.

At Terre Haute on Thursday Nancy Hanks to beat 2:04 made a mile with running mate in 2:04.

CRICKET.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—The steamer Germania, from Liverpool, with the Australian cricketers on board, arrived off Fire Island to-day.

LACROSSE.

THE CAPITALS ARE THE CHAMPIONS.

MONTREAL, Sept. 28.—A meeting of the Montreal Lacrosse Club, the five senior leagues lacrosse clubs here to-day awarded the match of last Saturday to the Capitals.

The Montreal Witness, which has been threatened with an action for damages by the Shamrocks, for its outspoken denunciation of Saturday's match, editorially repeats its remarks in Thursday's issue and says that the best thing possible would be for the Shamrocks to take the matter before the courts, as then their outrageous conduct would be fully exposed.

BASEBALL.

A fuller score in the Alerts-Cobourg game:

Cobourg..... R. H. E.
Alerts..... 3 9 3
Batteries—Mullhal and Malin; H. H. Quinn. Umpire, Charles Maddock, Toronto.

DEFEATED BY THE DUKES.

In the exhibition game of baseball in Toronto, Thursday, between the Dukes of the Indians and the London Alerts, the home team won—19 to 11.

NATIONAL LEAGUE SCORES—THURSDAY.

At St. Louis..... R. H. E.
Boston..... 1 4 0
St. Louis..... 3 9 3
Batteries—Mullhal and Malin; H. H. Quinn. Umpire—McQuaid.

At Louisville..... R. H. E.
Cincinnati..... 1 4 0
Louisville..... 3 9 3
Batteries—Stratton and Weaver; McMahon and Holloman. Umpire—Hornung.

At Cincinnati..... R. H. E.
Washington..... 4 7 1
Cincinnati..... 3 12 3
Batteries—Stockdale and Epper; McGuire, Chamberlain and Vaughn. Umpire—Gaffney.

At Pittsburgh..... R. H. E.
Pittsburgh..... 7 10 1
Batteries—German and Wilson; Gumbert and Holloman. Umpire—Powers.

At Cleveland..... R. H. E.
Cleveland..... 10 12 3
Cleveland..... 11 1 1
Batteries—Wyching and Clements; Clarkson and Zimmer. Umpire—Hurst.

THE WHEEL.

A NEW RECORD.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Sept. 28.—H. C. Tyrie made a new world's bicycle record for two miles from a standing start against time on Hampden Park this afternoon in 4:15.3—nine seconds faster than the record by F. G. Osmond in England last August.

SPOKS.

The Athenian Bicycle Club, Toronto, is to have a national road race on Oct. 7 over a twenty-mile course. The club's management and riders will take place on the Woodbine race track, and the remaining miles be run on Kingston road. Entries are being received from all the prominent bicycle centers. Prizes of great value are offered. An exciting contest is expected.

PARIS, Sept. 28.—M. Castanard, champion bicyclist, was thrown from a horse to-day, fracturing his skull, and died an hour later.

A Fighting Sheriff.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Sept. 28.—Sandy Donahue, the famous fighting sheriff of Coconino county, yesterday shot K. G. Harris and Harry Sh, noted horse thieves after a hard battle. The latter had killed seven men.

Canadians Honored.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 28.—At yesterday's session of the Knights of Malta and St. John, J. A. Cowan, of Toronto, was elected grand commander. A committee was appointed to revise the legislation and report to the next convention. It includes the names of R. E. A. Land, Hamilton, Ont., J. A. Cowan, Toronto, Rochester and Toronto are candidates for the next convention.

Lieut.-Col. Smith, deputy-adjutant general military district No. 1, will lecture to the officers of the Twenty-fifth Battalion, St. Thomas, next Thursday evening.

Perfumes!

We have just received some new Perfumes. All are dainty, refreshing, and delightful odors. Also new lines of Hair Brushes and Tooth Brushes.

Cairncross & Lawrence,
DISPENSING CHEMISTS,
216 DUNDAS ST.,
Branch—Corner Richmond and Piccadilly Streets.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEVITIES

Eight new cases of yellow fever were reported at Brunswick, Ga., on Thursday.

Frank B. Kendrick, assistant cashier in the Commercial Bank at Syracuse, N. Y., is a defaulter in the sum of $30,000.

At Chicago on Thursday, after shooting and seriously wounding three men, James McGrath, a notorious west side character, was shot and killed by a policeman.

Queen Regent Christina and the boy king Alfonso arrived in Madrid on Thursday from San Sebastian. Their return to the capital was made the occasion for a display of unwonted enthusiasm.

A Boston, Mass., dispatch says there is little doubt that the schooner sunk off Chatham Bar buoy on the night of the 21st was the Captain John of Ellsworth. There were three men on board, Capt. Milliken, Mate Benj. B. Betts and Seaman Harry Milliken.

At Cal