Mr. Alex. Stuart, K.C. Mr. Alex Stuart, K. C., of the firm f Stuart & Gunn, barristers, is seekity, but he is nevertheless, well qualified to conduct the affairs of the city. He was at one time one of the most prominent residents of Glencoe, and was there honored on several occasions by the townspeople, being a member of the council and the high school board, of which he was chairman. Mr. Stuart will make a painstaking alderman, with the welfare of all classes in view in every matter brought before the council. CONDENSED LOCAL NEWS

TRAFFIC WAS HEAVY. "How was the Christmas traffic this vear," was asked of a prominent G. F. R. official this morning. "The holiday passenger traffic was remarkably large over cur lines," was the reply. He further said that the raffic was far larger than that of the same time last year.

"Would you say that it was larger than at any previous holiday season? "Well, the traffic is increasing every year by leaps and bounds, and it is herefore understood that the Christnas passenger traffic of this year is arger than in any previous year. DEATH OF A PIONEER,

On Saturday last there passed away at Glencoe, one of the oldest residents of the county of Middlesex, in the person of Cameron, J. Campbell, at the age of 78 years. Mr. Campbell was a native of Caithnesshire, Scotland, and for over half, a century was actively identified with the public life of Westquarter of a century in the township and county councils, during which time he was identified with many municipal reforms. He was a Presbyterian, a Free Mason and a life-long Liberal. A widow, four sons and one daughter survive him, all resident in the county except A. W. Campbell, assistant commissioner of public works ian, a Free Mason and a life-long Libsistant commissioner of public works, with Masonie honors. A PRESENTATION.

Dr. Ziegler who has been a member of the school board for seven years has also retired, and it is understood Dr. Burdon, who was appointed a high school trustee at the time of Mr. Cousins' appointment, will also drop out.
