Webster, chief clerk of the fisheries branch, against the deputy minister, Mr. S. T. Bastedo. Mr. Bastedo's counter-charges will follow the hearing of Mr. Webster's case. The gravest charge alleged was perhaps that of falsifying the returns of refunds made during five years to the extent of $4,000. The mutilation of letters and public books and the removal of letter copies from public letter books to Mr. Bastedo's private letter book were other charges made and supported by exhibits.
