Poplar Hill, June 25. — The people of Lobo Township, and, indeed, many from the other townships of Middlesex, and from the city of London itself, estimated in the neighborhood of two thousand, gathered at Poplar Hill today and celebrated the annual union school pienic and old boys' reunion. The weather was ideal for the occasion, and long before noon the different roads leading into this village were dotted with rigs bringing people in to the picnic grounds in Campbell's grove. The grounds were in splendid hape, and as the committee in charge had arranged for accommodation, the event passed off without a hitch. A splendid programme had also been provided, and the afternoon was one

f enjoyment for the large crowd. It was a special day of enjoyment r the children. Shortly after one 'clock the school crildren from this nd neighboring districts were lined up and marched to the grounds. This marked the beginning of the programme, and from then on until late this evening there was something al ways doing.

The Sports. The programme of sports was an interesting one. The children's games were put on first, and every event was crowded with entries: It was in deed an enthusiastic bunch of young-sters that lined up for each race, and the prizes were not gained until after hard struggle on the part of the inners. One of the features of these vents was the three-legged race for considerable amusement, and was finally won by Messrs. O. Campbell and M. McArthur. Then followed in quick
