WRITTEN GUARANTEE

The man and wife who had called to look at the Period Model Phonograph whispered to each other in indecision while Mrs. Dober, the Want advertiser, played the Danube Blues. The inquirers had been on the verge of a favorable decision for twenty minutes, following their first surprised pleasure at the fine tone and handsome appearance of the instrument. They were almost ready to say "Yes," but instinctive caution held them back.

The wife was thinking: "If it really is as good as it seems, it seems almost too good a bargain at the price." "Something may be wrong with it that we don't know about. We don't want to buy a phonograph and find after we get it home that it is defective.

Mrs. Dober was thinking that her visitors were given to wholly unnecessary vacillation. It was a splendid phonograph, offered at a bargain price. How they could hesitate to buy, she found it hard to understand. "If only," remarked the woman caller, voicing her doubt,

"we knew it to be as good as it seems!" "Bless your heart!" said Mrs. Dober, "I'll give you a written guarantee. We are responsible. Look us up at the bank. If you are not satisfied with the machine, bring it back within a week, and we'll return your money.' She wrote this: "I guarantee the Princely Phonograph No. 3432334, sold by me this day to Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Sinclair, to be in sound mechanical condition, and all right in every respect. If they find it otherwise, they may return within one week from date and I will refund their money-MARY H. DOBER.'

Instantly the sale was made. In hundreds of Want Ad transactions, it costs nothing for the seller to give a written guarantee. Many times it will work like magic to make a sale. The Want advertiser sells more quickly, and more readily gets the full worth of his article. Use it when you can
