A DEEP AND DOUBLE GAME. The price of coal in Victoria is the subject of numberless paragraphs and articles in the Times. Everyone knows that it is not sympathy with the consumers of coal that causes our contemporary to be continually harping on that subject.

Another Case of Contempt. London, Jan. 2.—The Hon. James Hannen, president of the Parnell commission, is in London for the purpose of conferring with his associate commissioners in the matter of another contempt case upon which the commission is sitting.

Exciting Scene at an Eviction. DUBLIN, Jan. 2.—A series of very exciting scenes attended an eviction from the O'Connell estate, in county Donegal, today. A blacksmith named O'Donnell had been ejected from his house, and the bailiffs and police in attempting to effect an entrance by storm, were several times repulsed.
