

The Colonis

TO COMPEL G. T. R.
Toronto, Dec. 11.—J. W. Curry, K. C., has received instructions to apply to the high court for a mandate compelling the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway company to put third class coaches on trains between Toronto and Montreal, and to carry passengers at two cents a mile.

has been said with a great deal of truth that you can never become really acquainted with a man until you have dined with him, and in order to enjoy a pleasant time good tea must be served. During the past sixteen years "LALITA" has become a familiar word to every newspaper reader, and the fact that the demand is steadily increasing requires no comment; it tells its own story.

uses, however, and in 1720 there was a return to the old, and present standard of metal, with the leopard's head and lion passant. Naturally, these Britannia pieces are rare. Makers began to use their private marks about 1503. At first they used the first two letters of the surname; about 1723 the initials were substituted.

Spans Home. — The thirty-fourth annual meeting of the subscribers to the British Columbia Protestant Orphan's home was held Tuesday afternoon in city hall, there being a large attendance. President Charles Hayward occupied the chair. An adjournment was taken to the call of the chair for the purpose of electing a committee of management. Owing to extreme pressure on time a full report of the proceedings is ter, Marten and all raw furs wanted.

LAW FURS
 e for special price list and instruc-for shipping direct to us.

M. J. JEWETT
 REDWOOD, NEW YORK, U. S. A.

NOTICE
CHAS. DAY & CO., LONDON, Are The Sole Export Bottling Agents For John Jameson & Son's Whiskey

And on each LABEL must be found the following Notice and Signature:
"In order that Consumers may feel assured of genuineness, we would request the attention to this our Special Export Label, and to our Trade Mark Name on all Cokes, Cassettes and Cases, also to give mark."

John Jameson & Son