MILLIONS OF VOTES CAST

Ray Sullivan wins Durant "Sport" Touring
Mrs. N. S. Falle wins Star Touring

Many Candidates win Prizes and Cash Commission Prizes. The Graphic's Big Prize Contest is Great Success. Candidates express pleasure.

Contestants, their sisters, brothers, sweethearts, and friends; judges, votes and subscriptions, adding machines, figures, checks and money all helped to make the grand finale of The Graphic's Big Auto Contest the most successful, interesting and exciting ever held in this section of the Province of New Brunswick.

Excitement ran high all day Monday, in fact all week. Both candidates and their friends were much interested in who would be the winners in the contest, and the climax was a fitting one for a contest that had been waged with such spirit. Shortly after 3.00 o'clock last Monday afternoon, the judges opened the ballot box, and they were busy with the count until nearly six o'clock. The business office was filled at intervals with an audience which awaited the news with alternating hopes and fears such as no election returns were ever waited for in the Graphic Office.

Millions of votes were cast in the great contest, and hundreds of subscriptions were received. The Graphic has met with kind words of praise for the straightforward business manner in which the contest was conducted, and candidates seemed perfectly satisfied with the results.

Ray Sullivan, well known throughout the district, captured top honours. Mr. Sullivan did remarkable work, and the hundreds of friends who helped him will be glad to know that he won the Durant "Sport" Touring Car. Ever since the opening of the campaign, both Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan and their friends have been busy every day and late.

Mrs. N. S. Falle was second in the great contest and winner of the Star Touring Car. This popular candidate passed the fifty million mark and did most excellent work, and her friends will be glad of her success. Mrs. Falle was a most popular candidate, and deserves credit for the wonderful work she did, and she was ever looking forward to driving one of the big cars, and she expressed herself as "overjoyed" with the results, and especially so as to the management of the contest.

Mrs. Chester Fairley came third, winning the $200 cash prize, and her many loyal friends made a splendid fight for the big car. She was one of the best workers, and deserves great credit for the splendid work and the success she achieved.

Mrs. J. W. Cooke came close in winning one of the big cars and was one of the best workers in the whole contest and is to be congratulated on the wonderful work she did.

A friendly spirit marked the work of most of the contestants all through the contest. Most of the contestants have congratulated the winners on their remarkable victory and all seem satisfied with the results. Candidates expressed themselves as pleased with the impartial manner in which the contest was conducted by the campaign manager. Most of the contestants have received their awards, and one of the greatest contests ever held in this province is now a thing of the past.

All of the contestants expressed thanks to the thousands of friends who so cheerfully and generously aided them in their work. The management of the Graphic wish to add its appreciation and thanks to the people of Campbellton and surrounding district who so generously helped in the struggle for the contestants. The manager of the Graphic is more than pleased at the excellent showing made, and is overwhelmed with the mark of confidence shown by the people by the thousands of new and renewal subscriptions.

All are assured that the standard of the paper will be maintained, and with the aid of the countless new and renewal subscriptions efforts will be put forth to make the paper so that it may be worthy of the great confidence shown by its thousands of readers.

TO THE CANDIDATES AND THEIR FRIENDS

To you, winning candidates, and to your most loyal friends who helped you win one of the valuable prizes offered by The Graphic, I wish to extend my heartiest congratulations on your success, and the excellent work you did. You may well feel proud of your achievements, for you won a worthy fight.

You who did not win one of the big prizes, but won one of the cash commission prizes, may also feel proud of your efforts, for you won a well-fought battle.

Even though you were unsuccessful in placing your name upon the list of the big winners, you have gained the best wishes of your friends and the public, and you have been benefited in many ways which will help you in the battle which lasts long after the battle of ballots has been forgotten—the battle of life.

Thanking you all for the consistent good-will and fairness displayed at all times throughout the contest, I am

Very sincerely,
THE HULL CIRCULATION COMPANY,
Toronto, Canada.

Chapter II (Continued)

It may be that the copy of the grant given "June 17th, A. D. 1767" to "Felix O'Hara and John McCord of 1800 acres of land in Gaspey Bay" will be of interest to those who are interested in the history of the early days of the country, and so give it verbatim as follows:

"Quebec Government:
George the Third by the Grace of God, King of Great Britain and the territories there unto belonging. To all whom these presents letter shall come sendeth greeting:

Whereas our loving subjects, Felix O'Hara Esquire in our Province of Quebec, Esquire, and John McCord of the City of Quebec in the Province of Quebec aforesaid, Merchant, have by a petition presented to our trusty and well-beloved Guy Carleton, Esquire, our Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of our said Province and our council of the same on the twenty-third day of March one thousand seven hundred and sixty-seven, humbly request us to grant unto them, the said Felix and John and their heirs and assigns forever, thirteen hundred acres of land situate on the South West Branch of Gaspey Bay called York River, and our said Lieutenant Governor and Council of the Province aforesaid, having duly and maturely considered the said Petition, have approved the same and have judged that it would be reasonable and advisable that we should grant the said quantity of thirteen hundred acres of land as aforesaid unto the said Felix O'Hara and John McCord and their heirs and assigns forever upon the terms and conditions prescribed by our Royal Instructions in that behalf, and have thereupon ordered our loving and faithful subject John Collins Esquire, the Deputy Surveyor General of our said Province of Quebec to set off for the said Felix and John the said quantity of thirteen hundred acres of land situated as aforesaid, and at the same time to certify to our said Lieutenant Governor and Council the nature and quality of the lands so set off.

And in possession of the said order the said John Collins has set off three separate pieces of land that together amount about 1200 acres and situate as aforesaid from an original plan of Gaspey taken by him the said John Collins upon an actual survey.

And he has also certified to our Lieutenant Governor and Council aforesaid that three pieces of land appertaining to the said Felix O'Hara and John McCord and their heirs and assigns forever to be poor and barren and unfit for the production of hemp and flax and that the woods on them consist chiefly of birch, spruce and pine of inferior quality and produce neither oak and pine fit for his Majesty's use.

Now know ye, that we judging this request of the said Felix O'Hara and John McCord reasonable and being thereupon willing to gratify them therein and of our Especial Grace, and full power, sole privilege, full authority, sole privilege and mere motion, have given, granted and confirmed, and by these Present Letters under our Great Seal of our said Province of Quebec, do give, grant and confirm for ourselves our heirs and successors unto the said Felix O'Hara and John McCord and the Heirs and assigns of each of them the three said pieces of land so set off for them situate in the Province of Quebec to wit:—

1st.—The first piece which is a four-sided figure and which is situated in the South Branch of the South West Branch of Gaspey Bay, called York River, and is concluded within a boundary line which begins in the following place and runs in the following direction: to wit:—

It begins at a Birch Tree standing near the mouth of a small creek called Mill Creek and thence runs in a direction twenty-two degrees to the west of the South for a distance of six thousand nine hundred and thirty feet to a Poplar Tree which makes the first and corner boundary of the said piece of land, thence the said boundary line runs in a direction fifty-eight degrees to the west of the North for a length of three thousand four hundred and sixty four feet to a Cedar Tree that makes the second corner boundary, thence in a direction thirty-two degrees to the East of the North for a length of six thousand and nine hundred and thirty feet to another Cedar Tree, standing on the bank of the River which makes the third corner boundary, and thence runs along the bank of the said River called York River following the several courses of the said creek or small river, to the first station or Birch Tree standing near the mouth of the said small creek called Mill Creek which makes the fourth and last boundary (corner) of the said first piece of land containing about five hundred and fifty acres.

2nd.—And the second piece or lot of land which is likewise a four-sided figure whereof three of the sides are straight lines and which is situated on the North Branch of the aforesaid South West Branch of Gaspey Bay called York River, and is concluded within a boundary line which begins in the following place and runs in the following direction to wit:—

It begins at a Birch Tree standing on the Bank of the said North Branch of York River in a right line found by continuing the line that forms the Western side of the aforesaid first piece or lot of land across the South Branch aforesaid of York River and across the marsh that lies between the South and North Branches of the said River and across the North Branch of the same to the Northern Branch of the said North Branch, and it runs from the said Birch Tree in the direction aforesaid to wit:—in a direction thirty-two degrees to the East of the North for a length of six thousand nine hundred and thirty feet to a Pine Tree which makes the first corner boundary of the said second piece or lot of land, and thence the said boundary line runs forty-one degrees to the East of the south for a length of three thousand, six hundred and eighty feet to another Birch Tree which makes the second corner boundary and thence runs in a direction thirty-two degrees to the West of the south for a length of six thousand nine hundred and thirty feet to a Maple Tree standing on the said North Branch of York River which makes the third corner boundary and thence runs along the banks of the said North Branch of said River following the several courses of the said Branch to the first station or Birch Tree standing on the banks of the said North Branch in a line or direction above described, which said Birch Tree forms the fourth and last of said second piece or lot of land which said second piece or lot of land contains about five hundred and fifty acres.

3rd.—And the third piece or lot of land which is likewise a four-sided figure whereof three of the sides are straight lines, and which is situated in the broad part of the River aforesaid called York River before it divides into two Branches that include the marshy ground before mentioned, called the above North and South Branches of the said River, which said third piece or lot of land is included within a boundary which begins in the following place and runs in the following directions to wit:—

It begins at a Fir Tree standing on the Northern Branch of the said River called York River at the mouth of a spring Branch near the winter house of the said Felix O'Hara and thence runs due North for a length of four thousand, two hundred feet to a Cedar Tree which makes the first corner boundary of the said third piece or lot of land; and thence runs in a direction seventy-one degrees to the West of the North for a length of two thousand one hundred feet to a Birch Tree which makes the second corner boundary and thence runs due South to a spruce Tree standing on the Banks of the said River called York River which makes the third corner boundary and thence running along the Banks of the said River following the several courses of the said River at the mouth of a Spring Branch near the house of the said Felix O'Hara, until it reaches a Fir Tree which makes the fourth and last corner boundary of the said piece or lot of land, which said piece or lot of land (third) contains somewhat less than two hundred acres.

To have and to hold the said three pieces or lots of land hereby granted unto us our Heirs and successors unto them the said Felix O'Hara and John McCord and their Heirs and Assigns forever to be holden, occupied and enjoyed by them the said Felix and John and their Heirs and Assigns in common and not joint tenants in free and common socage by fealty and certain rent of twenty-six shillings lawful money of Great Britain every year in lieu of all manner of service to be paid every year on the Feast Day of Saint John the Baptist to our Receiver General of our Revenue in our said Province of Quebec or in case of his absence from the Province for the time being to our Governor in Chief of our said Province for the time being, for the use of Us, our Heirs, successors, the first payment of which rent shall be paid on the aforesaid Feast Day of Saint John the Baptist in the year of Our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and eighty nine.

And we do hereby Give and Grant for us our Heirs and successors unto the said Felix O'Hara and John McCord, and each of them, their Heirs and Assigns and the Heirs and Assigns of each of them full Power and Liberty to use, occupy, cultivate and enjoy the premises aforesaid in any manner that they shall think fit, as well as by cutting down any tree growing upon the said premises, large timber trees fit for building ships not excepted, and by digging, opening any mines that may happen to be found in the said premises, excepting only mines of gold and silver, as by cultivating the surface of the ground on the same, or by any method of improvement whatsoever, and to apply the produce and profits thereof arising to his and their own use and benefit, paying therefor to us our Heirs, and successors the rent full reserved of twenty-six shillings lawful money of Great Britain every year.

Port Daniel Centre

The marriage took place on Wednesday morning, July 18th, at nine o'clock at St. James Church, Port Daniel, of Miss Agnes C. Sweetman, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Sweetman, to Mr. Ernest Dow, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dow. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. Jones. The bride who was given away by her father, wore a pretty suit of navy ported twill with hat to match and carried a bouquet of syringa and American Beauty roses and was attended by her sister, Miss Alice A. Sweetman, who wore a dress of navy swiss taffeta with touches of tangerine and hat to match carrying a bouquet of American Beauty and Scotch roses. Mr. E. Hayes, first cousin of the groom was best man.

The happy couple leaving immediately after for a motor trip through New Brunswick. The groom's present to the bride was a gold bangle bracelet, to the bridesmaid a pearl and gold pin and to the groomsmen a gold tie pin set with pearls. They were the recipients of many beautiful presents in silver, including a cutlery, china and linen.
