The County Fair.

One of the seasons of the current theatrical year will be the holding of "The County Fair" at the Grand Opera House next week. The central figure in this play is an elderly spinster, prim, prudish and severely proper, by name Abigail Brew. Her quiet humor springs from piousness and her sincere anxiety for the welfare of those about her is touching and amusing. Abigail adopts two waifs, Tim and Topsy, who she finally discovers are relatives. This has been a jockey, and she soon learns that Miss Brew's cold molasses has speed and trains him for the big race at the county fair.

Abigail is threatened with the loss of her farm through foreclosure of a mortgage, but Tim wins the race and purse, and so averts the calamity. In one scene she is a hunking bee and an old-fashioned country dance, but the overwhelming episode is a running horse race. Three flyers are ridden by jockeys at full tilt. The realism and the thrill of this scene are astonishing. The sale of seats will begin Thursday morning, and matinees will be given Tuesday, Wednesday and Saturday.

Damrosch.

To-morrow evening the great Damrosch New York Symphony Orchestra will give one of their magnificent concerts in the Grand Opera House. The sale of seats began yesterday morning and the large number taken indicates that it will be a great success.

"Callithers" by the Philharmonic Society. Though the audience at the Pavilion last evening was a very fair one, it was not at all equal to the merit of the program presented by the Philharmonic Society under the directing baton of Prof. Torrington. In addition to Squire's wonderful soloists "Callithers," the magnificent orchestra performed "Symphony, op. 2" by Saint-Saëns, "Cavalleria Rusticana," the playing of the orchestra had a grand, smooth, evenly balanced tone, and in the magnificent solo of the first number and the subtle suggestion of the orchestra's direction was most noteworthy. Mr. Kaiser of New York sang "Salvo Dimeo" from "Faust" with orchestral accompaniment. He sang with perfect ease and his voice in this selection very effectively, but his voice is rugged and defective in the lower register. His enunciation is fairly distinct.

The cantata "Callithers" relates an extremely legendary Greek story of two people who loved each other very much, but as one did not find out the state of her heart the other had killed himself for love. Her, she also died and both became river deities. The chorus was a large and strong one and sang with a magnificent volume of sound. The music is of a grand and highly colored quality and there is little opportunity for show or dramatic effects. The chorus rendered in almost perfect unison, the most noticeable defect being a few broken accents. The charming little soprano soloist Miss Minnie Gayford had a heavy task in the part of the river deity, but she did it with remarkable ease and success. Her beautiful sweet rendering of the postlude which commences part 3 called forth great applause, and the audience was hardly satisfied with a repetition of the entire number. Mr. Kaiser sang with good effect and much ease considering the amount of work he had to do. Miss Benoit sang excellently a contralto solo with chorus. The tragic finale was handled by both soloists and the chorus. Miss Gayford again receiving much applause. The final chorus was very fine, and in a spirited and effective manner, and the chorus where the native of Calidion are supposed to be enlisted in the assault was also a splendid effort. The orchestral accompaniment and interludes are a small feature of this brilliant cantata.

Prof. Torrington has given Toronto a festival of music which reflects credit on his past record and high standing as the father of good music in this city. The festival was not crowded to the doors to be explained by the number of grand concerts which have during the last few weeks preceded him, but it is fair to say that this festival of the Philharmonic Society is a most promising event of the musical season, and for the performance of Gounod's "Redemption" tonight there should be an immense house.

New York Ideal Trio.

The concert of Thursday night (19th inst.) in Broadway Tabernacle by the New York Ideal Trio, assisted by the Carlton Quartet, is attracting wide attention among concert goers and its promoters are highly gratified by the prospects of success. The Ideal Trio, now making its first appearance before a Toronto audience, though with a high reputation in the American cities, is composed of Miss Jessie Mackinnon, soprano; Mr. MacLennan, tenor; and Miss Florence Russell, contralto. The heavy and saxophone in conjunction are a genuine novelty and produce a harmonious effect. This is a novelty in the world of music, and is sure to please the Toronto public. The Carlton Quartet—Mrs. MacLennan, soprano; Mr. D. E. Cameron, tenor; Mr. Sims Richards, tenor; and Mr. D. E. Cameron, tenor. Individual solos as well as several concerted numbers. The concert altogether promises to be one of the best of this very good season.

The Sheridan Dramatic Company.

On May 24 the Sheridan Dramatic Company will give a performance of two farces in the new theatre at the home of the manager, Mr. H. Mettville-Boddy. Leading parts will be taken by Miss Marion Chubb and Mr. A. McLean Macdonell, the well-known and clever comedians.

Christ Before Pilate.

A reproduction of Munkacsy's famous masterpiece, "Christ Before Pilate," will be presented to every lady and little girl who purchases a ticket of admission to the House in Friday afternoon next. The Two-Headed Boy, who is today the greatest living curiosity on the face of the earth, will be seen in the lecture hall, as well as an excellent program in the theatre.

Women as Market Gardeners.

So many women who wish to earn their own living have gone into the millinery business that it has been suggested that another field of labor might prove more profitable. Years ago, before Mrs. Langtry went on the stage, she had a millinery shop, which she should go to for growing lettuce, cauliflower and asparagus, or play Pauline and Lady Lucanor. She was certainly a woman who succeeded in the first, and she felt sure that vegetable growing would be a good deal more profitable. However, she elected to go on the stage, but why does not some other woman follow her idea, and make the vegetable from Mrs. Brown-Jones' farm the most desirable and most sought after in the market?—Market-Jones' Home Journal.

Resumed Business.

The many friends and customers of L. O. Frothe & Co., Montreal, will be pleased to hear that they have resumed business with renewed facilities for the manufacture of their celebrated cigars.

Suburban Woe.

Mrs. Suburb (pensively): My dear, I've succeeded in getting a servant girl at last. I go to the kitchen and kiss her.

Mrs. Suburb: Kiss her?

Mrs. Suburb: Certainly, I had to promise that she should be treated as one of the family.—New York Weekly.

THIS BRIDE WAS IN MALE ATTIRE.

A Pittsburgh Couple Start On Their Honey-moon in a Box Car.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 17.—On Sunday morning when the fast freight from Pittsburgh arrived here two slight, boyish figures jumped out of one of the box cars. Special Officer Jones overhauled them and was about to march them to the police station when one of them said:

"Gentlemen, we meant no harm. This is my wife. I am Edward V. Edson of Pittsburgh and we were married only 48 hours ago in that city."

Edson then said that for several years he had been train dispatcher at the Pittsburgh yards. On Friday night they were privately married by a clergyman in Fifth Avenue and then went to his sister's house at No. 503 Duquesne street, where the newly-made wife put on male attire, and with two valises bulging and wife started on their honeymoon in a box-car.

The officer allowed the couple to depart.

Paraffin Cases.

Mrs. Grumpe: There are thousands of occupations in which men have places which women should fill. Why shouldn't women be druggists? Answer me that.

Mr. Grumpe: This cottage muddling isn't good at all. How did you make it?

Mrs. Grumpe: I took a few handfuls of flour and some milk and a few eggs, I forgot how many, and some sugar, I think, and I baked it. I added some salt and maybe some baking powder, don't know how much. I never measure.

Mr. Grumpe: That's why.—New York Weekly.

Five Years.

"I have been ill for 'about five years,' have had the best 'medical advice,' and I took the first 'dose in some doubt.' This result 'was no further hemorrhage till next day, when I had a slight attack,' which stopped almost immediately. By the third day all trace of 'blood had disappeared and I had recovered much strength. The 'fourth day I sat up in bed and ate my dinner, the first solid food for two months. Since that time I 'have gradually gotten better and 'am now able to move about the 'house. My death was daily expected and my recovery has been a great surprise to my friends and the doctor. There can be no doubt 'about the effect of German Syrup, 'as I had an attack just previous to 'its use. The only relief was 'the first dose.' R. LOUGHERAN, Adelaide, Australia."

"Dear Dr. Rear:

"I have had falling health, loss of appetite (one meal a day of late), took severe cold, settled on lungs and bronchial tubes, developed into asthma, pain in chest, false spittle, had cough, and was unable to sleep. The Citizens' Mill, where I am millwright, the engineer thought I was dying. Reliable information said that 'Histo-genetic' medicine would save life after all else failed. Twenty years' knowledge of your family and your scientific researches told me you would tell the truth. I consulted you one morning. You prescribed Dr. J. E. Histo-genetic (late of Germany) Histo Medicines. 'Histo-genetic' is a natural, safe, reliable, non-poisonous, and most effective. No fault to it. Cough almost gone. No false spittle. Appetite splendid. Could 'not sleep on horseback. Today have climbed ten or twelve times to top of Knox Church tower and only had to rest once. It is a wonderful system."
