CAPITALISTS AND SPECULATORS

THE rapid strides making by the British Provinces, and the West India Islands, to the construction of a Rail Road, from St. Andrews in New Brunswick, to Quebec in Lower Canada, and the success that has hitherto attended the enterprise of this magnificent undertaking, has at length exceeded their most sanguine expectations; there remains not a doubt but that active operations will be commenced in the following spring, consequently, property of every description will rise in value as the work progresses, and yield immense profits to persons disposed to purchase at the present reduced value of property in this town. The Proprietor being anxious to dispose of all his undermentioned Real Estate in St. Andrews, and Lands in the neighbourhood of the Schooner River, also valuable Lands on the St. John River, and other Lands at Gardiner's Creek, a short distance from the city of St. John, is disposed to treat with any person or persons, who, for the most reasonable terms, for the same, or the same, two-thirds of the purchase money may remain at interest, four years or seven years, as the parties may agree.

ALBION

PROSPECTUS OF THE FOURTH VOLUME OF A JOURNAL OF THE NEWS, POLITICS, AND LITERATURE OF EUROPE.

The fourth volume of the New Series of THE ALBION, commenced on the 1st of January, 1836. This Journal, which embodies the News, Politics, and Literature of Europe, more particularly Great Britain, has been established nearly Fourteen Years, and has obtained a reputation and circulation far surpassing the most sanguine expectations of its founders. The Editor, in the discharge of his duty, has endeavored to make the Journal, on these separate occasions, to improve, enlarge, and embellish the work, and to throw into its pages such an increased quantity of political, literary, and scientific matter, as to render it, in the estimation of its friends, one of the most interesting and valuable Journals in the English language.

In its details, the ALBION will be found to contain Notices and copious extracts from all the new publications of value, issuing from the British Press; the Editors in both Houses of Parliament, with the most remarkable speeches at length, and the general intelligence of the British Empire, the Continent of Europe, and other parts of the globe. In its lighter portions will be found the most amusing and agreeable Tales of the British Periodicals, which, so far from being their lively and sparkling talent, selected with a diligence and care that has drawn forth the most unqualified approbation. As far as regards the editorial department, which has been entrusted to the Editor, it is a matter of course, that the Editor will be found to contain the most respectable and influential families, and may be found in the following list of names:—
