If robins are any sign of an early spring, then we are sure of one; but a solitary butterfly was seen by your correspondent on Monday, March 21st, and that fellow, the way he was flying, is now in the Southern States looking for a milder climate.

"CASCRETS" IF SICK, BILIOUS, HEADACHY

Tonight sure! Let a pleasant, harmless Cascret work while you sleep and have your liver active, head clear, stomach sweet and bowels moving regular by morning. No gripping or inconvenience. 10, 25 or 50 cents boxes. Children love this candy cathartic too.

William C. Leslie, Halifax, has been awarded the federal contract for a steamship service between Pictou and the Magdalen Islands, his being the lowest tender and besides, according to information from the deputy minister at Ottawa, Mr. Leslie offered the most suitable steamer, a new boat now about ready for sea at Gilbert's Cove, Digby county, from the yard of Captain Bernard N. Melanson. Another feature, the deputy minister reports, is the fact that the new company which Mr. Leslie will form is to allot a certain proportion of its stock to the Magdalen Islanders themselves, thus giving them a personal interest in the service, and may therefore be regarded as most promising and satisfactory. The steamer, the name of as the new steamer, is to be fitted out as to the needs of this special service.

THE GIFT SUPREME

Bernard Durning, the stage manager, picture director and actor who scored a remarkable personal triumph in the recent screen success, "When Bear-Cat Went Dry," has one of the leading parts in the new screen production "The Gift Supreme." As one of several prominent members of the all-star cast he has the role of Young Vinton, the son of a wealthy man. Soon after leaving college he tires of the idle life and rich associates and seeks excitement and adventure in the slums of the city in which he lives. Here he meets his ideal girl, but one that is not approved of by his parents. His father even stops to hiring criminals to ruin the reputation of his prospective daughter-in-law but to no avail. His son by fair-mindedness and square dealing is able to defeat even the cunning crooks.

This intensely interesting drama will be shown at the Princess Theatre, Bridgetown, Monday and Tuesday evening, when such players as Seena Owen, Tully Marshall, Lon Chaney, Melbourne Mac Dowell and many others of equal prominence will be seen in leading roles.

Keep Minard's Liniment in the house.

LOCAL DEATH ROLL

MRS. ELIZA H. MESSINGER

News has reached here from Beverly, Mass., of the death of Mrs. Eliza Helen, wife of Capt. Daniel N. Messenger, which occurred at her home, 140 Mountain Ave., Malden, Monday, March 21st. The deceased had been in poor health for years but more especially so for the last few months. The deceased was formerly Eliza Helen Warner, born in Plympton, Digby Co., N. S., seventy-seven years ago last October. She married Capt. Daniel N. Messenger, of Centrelea, Annapolis Co., and before her husband retired from sea they resided for many years at Barton, Digby Co. She is survived by her husband and three sons, Ellsworth and Vose, of Malden, and Forrest of Rockland, Me., also two daughters, Mrs. E. B. Currell, of Reading, Mass. and Miss Pearl Messenger, of Malden; one grandson and three granddaughters. She also leaves two brothers, James L. Warner, who resides in Mass., and Jesse Warner, of Wilmington, Mass. The funeral was held from her late home in Malden on Wednesday afternoon, the funeral service being conducted by Rev. Mr. Dyas, a former pastor of the Barton Baptist church, who years ago, had personally known the deceased, who was then a member of that church. Among the relatives from out of town who attended the funeral were: Mrs. Helen M. Gregg, of Beverly; Mrs. Edith E. Dunham, of Salem, neices of the deceased; and Mr. Norris Merrill, of Centrelea, brother of Capt. D. N. Messenger. Mrs. Messenger is survived by many relatives in Bridgetown and vicinity, all of whom mourn the death of a highly respected native of this province.

MRS. AMY SMITH

Mrs. Amy Smith died at her home at Clementsport, Thursday, March 17th, aged 85 years and 9 months. The deceased, who was a member of the Baptist Church, had been twice married, her first husband being the late William Duke-shire and the second one the late George Smith. She leaves one son Major Duke-shire and two daughters, Mrs. Arthur Brown and Mrs. Norris Merrill, all of Clementsport. She is also survived by five half brothers, Lemuel, Elias, Henry Daniel and William Messenger, all of Bridgetown, and two half sisters, Mrs. Mary James Allen, formerly of Moncton, N. B. at present in Clementsport, and Mrs. Major Sloumb, of Bridgetown. Funeral took place on Saturday with interment in the Riverside cemetery, Bridgetown, the services at Clementsport being conducted by Rev. A. M. McVintch and at the grave by Rev. M. S. Richardson. The pall bearers were five half brothers of the deceased.

DAVID HARRIS

The death of David Harris a well known man of Lequille, occurred on Thursday last at the age of seventy-six. He had not been well for some time but not until last week were there any fears that he would not recover. The funeral took place on Saturday, the 12th March. The service was held in St. Alban's Church and interment in St. Alban's Cemetery. The Rector of the parish spoke to the large number present of the seriousness of life, and the ultimate joy that would follow the faithful following in the footsteps of the Master.

EDGAR M. WEBSTER

A telegram has been received containing the sad news of the death of Edgar M. Webster, which occurred at Winter Haven, Florida, Sunday evening. The remains will be buried at Kentville. Mr. Webster sold his property in Clarence last autumn to Chester Barteaux and went to Florida to spend the winter. He intended to start north the last of this month and purchase a small farm in the Annapolis Valley.

Mother

Give Sick, Bilious Child "California Fig Syrup"

"California Syrup of Figs" is the best "laxative physic" to give to a sick, feverish child who is bilious or constipated. Directions for babies and children on bottle. They love its fruity taste. Beware! Say "California" or you may not get the genuine recommended by physicians for over thirty years. Don't risk injuring your child's tender stomach, liver and bowels by accepting an imitation fig syrup. Insist upon "California".
