

CHAPTER VIII. Division of the Applecross Estate— Arrival of Mr. W. J. O. Holmes and Mr. Henry Clarke—Lease of Coulin to Mr. Holmes for One Year (1861)—Failure to Purchase Coulin—Knocked down to Lord Hill—Fishing on Loch Coulin—First Deer Stalking Experiences with Mr. Holmes and Engage- ment to him as Forester—Mr. Holmes Resolves to Purchase a Deer Forest—Journey to and Inspection of Monar—Meeting of the Giant Shepherd, Eachin Mohr—Negotiations with Mr. White for the Pur- chase of Monar—Return to Coulin—Arrival of Mr. White at Auchmanault and Purchase of Monar— Close of the Shooting Season at Coulin—Farquhar McPhail (Peachy)—John Mackenzie (Shohchan)— Return of Mr. Holmes and Mr. Clarke to England	Page 111
CHAPTER IX. Trek to Monar — Description of the Journey and Places en route —Arrival at Monar —Arrival of Mr. Holmes and Mr. Clarke—Trout Fishing and Deer Stalking at Monar—Leasing of Gleneag — Building of West Monar Lodge and Forester's House at Luib-in-inver—Doubt as to the Capacity of Mr. Holmes' Rifle—Killing of the Big Stag — First Appearance of the Henry Rifle — Incidents Relative to Deer Stalking at Monar — Mr. Clarke—Mr. Gildford Hartley—The Auchna- shellach Drive—The Norfolkshire Sportsman, Mr. Graham, K.C.—Captain Chisholm	131
CHAPTER X. Life at Monar during Winter Months— Dancing Class—Education of my Children—Taking over the West Monar Sheep Run from the Messrs. Gordon—Sheep Farming—Some Interesting Per- sonalities and Events—Eachin Mohr—Alister Mohr —Hamish Dhu—Whisky Smuggling—Nasty Acci- dent while Pruning Trees—Short Travel in the Lowlands—Amusing Incident Relative to a Pike— Practical Joke on old Page—Hamish Dhu and Page as Highlanders—John Ross (King of Deer Stalkers) —Thomas Lord Lovat—W. L. Winans	157