OPINION OF REV. DR. WITHROW.

The life of George Moore, Merchant and Philanthropist, should be in every Sunday-school in the Dominion. Young men especially will find it an inspiration to duty and to consecration of their powers to the glory of God and welfare of man that will make their lives sublime.

OPINION OF MR. JOHN MACDONALD.

I know of few books which ought to have so salutary an influence in giving a healthful bias to the life of a young man, whatever may be the profession or business he purposes adopting.

To every merchant its study should prove invaluable; indeed it is difficult to imagine any merchant failing, who will follow the many lessons which the life of this extraordinary man is calculated to teach.

The book ought to meet with an enormous sale.

 Agents will find this a capital selling book, being both good and cheap. It should find a place in every home.

A MANUAL OF METHODISM;

"This book, abounding with facts, will give its readers a correct and comprehensive view of the origin, development, and general features of Methodism. . . . The design is not to encourage or promote Sectarianism, but to impart useful information: for it is certainly desirable and proper that as a people we should be acquainted with our denominational history and should highly appreciate the distinctive doctrinal and disciplinary principles which govern our Church."—Extract from Preface.
