Mercantile Summary:

— Mr. Geo. W. Liddell, late of the United States Assurance Company, has been appointed agent of the Mutual Life of Canada vice Lonsdale resigned.— Some of our leading insurance Companies contemplate ceasing to issue or renew any policies in towns with defective fire appliances until better security is guaranteed by the respective authorities.— Cameron & Saunders, general storekeepers, Charlottetown, P.E.I., have assigned in trust to Carville Bros. A meeting of creditors is called for the 18th inst.— The creditors of Joseph Atkinson & Co., of London, Ont., will hold a meeting on the 12th inst. The liabilities of the firm are stated at $165,000; assets, $63,000.— The debts of English cities had reached at last accounts a total of £92,500,000, or about $465,500,000. New York city alone owes a debt of $114,000,000, or nearly one-fourth as much as all the cities of England. The debt of English cities have increased about $12,500,000 within a year, and it is estimated that they will reach a round $500,000,000 by 1877.— E. G. Mellor, the absconding jeweller, was released from custody at St. Louis, Mo., on the 12th inst., under a writ of habeas corpus, the requisition papers necessary to secure his return east not having arrived. He was immediately rearrested by a United States Marshal on a charge of smuggling, and also by the County Marshal, at the instance of W. C. Munderloh, of Montreal, on a charge of larceny.— The Agricultural and Horticultural exhibition is a pronounced success. The number of visitors on Wednesday was nearly eighteen thousand. Great numbers of country merchants have availed themselves of the excursion rates wisely ceded by the Grand Trunk and other railway companies to come and make their fall purchases. Nearly all the hotels are full. At the Ottawa on Wednesday there were over three hundred arrivals, and two omnibus loads were obliged to be sent to a less favored hotel on the same street.
