

Those who desire to be thoroughly posted on the great issues now before the people of the United States cannot do better than to read the July Arena. The question which undoubtedly takes precedence over all other questions at the present time is the money question. This subject is exhaustively dealt with. The editor, Mr. B. O. Flower, in addition to some stirring editorials, contributes two remarkably strong papers to the controversy, one of which embodies the views of such prominent and authoritative thinkers as the noted financier and banker, Jay Cooke, Wm. P. St. John, president of the Mercantile National Bank of New York, and Judge Walter Clark, LL.D., of the Supreme Bench of North Carolina. H. F. Bartine, in a closely reasoned and well-written paper, replies to a recent article in The Forum, by M. Paul Leroy Beaulieu, in favor of gold monometallism. Mr. Bartine makes a strong case for the white metal, and refutes M. Beaulieu's arguments in a clear and logical manner that is calculated to bring conviction to unprejudiced minds. Other economic and social problems are discussed by live thinkers in this number of the Arena.

Canadian Savage Folk

The Native Tribes of Canada

BY JOHN MACLEAN, M.A., Ph.D.
Author of "The Indians of Canada," "James Evans, Inventor of the Cree Syllable System," etc.

CLOTH, ILLUSTRATED, $2.50.

CONTENTS—Some Queer Folk—In the Lodges—Church and Camp—Native Heroes—Native Religions—Races and Languages—On the Trail

Rev Dr. Withrow writes in Onward: "This is, we believe, the largest and most important book on the native races of Canada that has yet been published. It is the result of the careful and thorough study of many years. During his missionary life among Indian tribes and by subsequent investigation, Dr. Maclean has familiarized himself with the languages, traditions, religions, manners, and customs of the Canadian aborigines. His previous volumes on the Indian of Canada is a demonstration of his qualifications for treating the records of our native races. This book will be a permanent authority on this subject."
