

PARAGRAPHIC.

FOR THE YEAE 1886.

No better resolution can be made than to resist buying any of the substitutes offered as "just as good" as the great only sure-pop cure—Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. It never fails to give satisfaction. Beware of poisonous flesh eating substitutes.

A commercial paper announces the formation of a great pool in Leghorn citron. It must be just too sweet for anything to get into that pool—at least so candid men admit.

The chief clerk of the Government Dispensary says that no medicine chest is now complete without Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. No medicine known to medical science for internal and external use possesses the wonderful power of this Anodyne.

A familiar instance of color-blindness is that of a man taking a brown silk umbrella and leaving a gingham one in its place.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate.

IN WEAK STOMACH AND DYSPEPSIA

Dr. J. C. Winans, Madison, O., says: "I have used it in atony of the stomach, dyspepsia, and vomiting in pregnancy, and found it an admirable remedy; also in atonic conditions where phosphorus is required."

A graveyard in the county Cork has the following notice over its entrance gate: "Only the dead who live in this parish are buried here."

CHRONIC COUGHS & COLDS,

And all diseases of the Throat and Lungs can be cured by the use of Scott's Emulsion, as it contains the healing virtues of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites in their fullest form. See what W. S. Muer, M.D., L.R.C.P. &c., Truro, N.S., says:—"After three years' experience I consider Scott's Emulsion one of the very best in the market. Very excellent in Throat affections." Put up in 50c and $1 size.

A Paradox—Killing yourself with hard work to get a living.

TO FARMER'S AND HORSEMEN.—Minard's Liniment, the great horse and cattle remedy, cures bruises, sprains, soreness, lameness, stiffness, swellings, scratches, colic, cramps, stoppage of bowels or urinary organs; and relieves all painful ailments to live stock as require internal and external remedies.

A man is never so hungry that he passes his plate back the second time for humble pie.

This paper has done as much as any other to expose the worthlessness of the big pack Condition Powders, and means to keep it up, too. We know of only one kind that are absolutely and strictly pure, and that is Sheridan's.

We call the attention of our lady readers to the advertisement in our columns of James Pyle's Pearlina, for laundry and kitchen purposes. An article so popular and widely circulated, must possess merits that commend it to the favor of housekeepers.
