

A Cure or no Pay.

All diseases arising from a deranged liver, or from impure blood, as boils, blotches, pimples, scalp disease, scrofulous sores and swellings and consumption (which is lung-scrofula) in its early stages, are cured by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, or the money paid for it will be promptly returned. Sold by druggists under a duly executed certificate of guarantee from the manufacturers.

It is said that "men are the architects of their own fortunes." This explains why so many of them fail, for but few get beyond the nave.

Holloway's Corn Cure destroys all kinds of corns and warts, root and branch. Who then would endure them with such a cheap and effectual remedy within reach?

Gabby—"How did you get that dreadful cold?" Snulleton—"In the natural way, stoopid! S'pose I advertised for plans and specifications?"

So rapidly does lung irritation spread and deepen, that often in a few weeks a simple cough culminates in tubercular consumption. Give heed to a cough, there is always danger in delay, get a bottle of Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, and cure yourself. It is a medicine unsurpassed for all throat and lung troubles. It is compounded from several herbs, each one of which stands at the head of the list as exerting a wonderful influence in curing consumption and all lung diseases.

You haven't heard anything until you have heard both sides, says a writer. This may be very pretty logic, but the brass drum refutes it.

The great majority of so-called cough cures do little more than impair the digestive functions and create bile. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, on the contrary, while it cures the cough, does not interfere with the functions of either stomach or liver.

It has been discovered that kisses—love kisses, we mean—are full of electricity. Now we know why old maids have always called kissing shocking!

C. A. Livingstone, Plattsville, says:—"I have much pleasure in recommending Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, from having used it myself, and having sold it for some time. In my own case I will say for it that it is the best preparation I have ever tried for rheumatism."

"Got a stiff neck, George?" "Yes." "Cold?" "No; a pretty girl sat a few seats behind me in the theatre last night, and I had to turn round so often, you know."

Much distress and sickness in children is caused by worms. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator gives relief by removing the cause. Give it a trial and be convinced.

If it were only as easy for a man to understand a woman as it is to love her there wouldn't be any "Is Marriage a Failure?" going the uneven rounds of the press.

He Yielded to Persuasion.

"For years I suffered from dyspepsia in its worst forms, and after trying all means in my power to no purpose, friends persuaded me to try Burdock Blood Bitters, which I did, and after using five bottles I was completely cured." NEIL MCNEIL

Leith, Ont.

Teacher (holding up in oratorical colors the horrors of intemperance)—"Now, boys, look at me. Why don't I drink?" Boy on back seat—"Cos you ain't got the rocks."

The Candid Truth.

I used Hagyard's Yellow Oil this winter for the first time for croup and I must say I find no better remedy for it. MINNIE REID, Listowel, Ont. Yellow Oil is a specific for croup and sore throat; it never fails.

Wife (to husband at the end of a spat)—"The fools ain't all dead yet." Husband—"They ain't, eh?" Wife—"No, or I would have the amount of your insurance policy before this."

A lifetime of torture is often endured by the rheumatic. Their pangs may, however, be promptly relieved and the disease eradicated with Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, which is, moreover, a swift and thorough remedy for neuralgia, lame back sores, bruises, frost bite, corns, excoriated nipples, inflamed breasts, liver complaint, and all affections of the breathing organs.

Miss Laura—"What a remarkably quiet young man Mr. Timmins is. Yabsley—"Do you think so? You ought to hear him eat once!"

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East Indian missionary in the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all Throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints. After having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge to all who desire it, this receipt in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing, with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. Noyes, 119 Power's Block, Rochester, N.Y.

She scolds and frets,
She's full of pets,
She's rarely kind and tender;
The thorn of life
Is a fretful wife—
I wonder what will mend her?

Try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Ten to one, your wife is cross and fretful because she is sick and suffering, and cannot control her nervousness when things go wrong. Make a healthy woman of her and the chances are you will make a cheerful and pleasant one. "Favorite Prescription" is the only remedy for woman's peculiar ailments, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. See guarantee on bottle wrapper. Large bottles, $1. Six for $5.

An exchange asks: Why doesn't society substitute morning coffees for afternoon teas for a change? This is probably said in mockery.

The pangs endured by the early Christian martyrs were no doubt excruciating, but not so prolonged or scarcely more dreadful than those experienced by the sufferers from inflammatory rheumatism—a disease which is easily curable at the outset with Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil—a sovereign remedy for pain—a reliable curative of kidney, liver and other complaints, and a medicine of the purest as well as the most salutary kind.

"Nations are like individuals," says an orator. Not much. You never hear an individual complaining about the size of his surplus.

Thomas Robinson, Farnham Centre, P. Q., writes:—"I have been afflicted with Rheumatism for the last ten years, and have tried many remedies without any relief. I got a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, and found it gave me instant relief, and since then have had no attack. I would recommend it to all."

There is sure to be something serious on foot when a man goes to the chiropodist's office.

Would not be Without it.

Sirs,—We have used your Hagyard's Pectoral Balm for severe coughs and colds and can recommend it to be just what it is represented to be. We would not be without it. H. SABINE, Cataract, Ont.

The exercise of forbearance is harder exercise than taking a twenty-mile walk.

TWO BOTTLES CURE FEMALE COMPLAINTS of some years' standing. So writes a lady from Syracuse, who had tried almost everything, and when she commenced taking Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery she could not stand on her feet but a few minutes at a time, and she can now walk three miles without any trouble.

The girl who has the strongest will is the girl who says the strongest won't

First and foremost among external curatives of pain is Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Nor is it less esteemed as a remedy for coughs, pains, swellings, corns, bunions, etc. It is an economic as well as inexpensive article, since the results produced by it necessitate the use only of a small quantity.

Many a youthful scion of wealth is dependent on papa labor.

Let quality, not quantity, be the test of a medicine. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the concentrated extract of the best and purest ingredients. Medical men everywhere recommend it as the surest and most economical blood medicine in the market.

It discourages a young mustache to be called down.

Swimming Niagara.

Is an easy way to end life, and suffering dyspepsia to exist is an easy way to make it miserable. Taking Burdock Blood Bitters is any easy way to cure dyspepsia and it never fails to thoroughly tone and strengthen the entire system at the same time.

Literature in the Kitchen.

There was once a woman who had the strongest faith in the value of home missions. She put a contribution for the conversion of the heathen in the plate at church once or twice a year. She belonged to several board of ladies who managed charities, and she read a great deal of literature written to show just what was wrong with society, and just how it should be set right. But all the while, she confided to her husband, she was more interested in domestic missions than in any one of these stirrings after a general millennium, and her principal mission station was in her own kitchen.

"Now, you know," she said, to that sympathetic person, who used to listen to reports of mission work after dinner, "that there are several members of our board who are greatly interested in the question of improving the tenements. They are trying to get new ones built where there will be lace curtains and pots of geraniums at the window, which will elevate the tenants and set a standard of beauty and cleanliness for them. I think it's a very good idea, and I mean to apply it in my own kitchen."

In course of time there were hung at her kitchen windows little curtains of dotted muslin that could be easily washed, and though no geraniums were put on the window-sill, because they would be in the way there, there were two pots of fresh scarlet and green in cheap swinging iron brackets that could be turned out of the way when the window was raised. Three or four small rocking-chairs that cost but little had their tops tied with bows of bright ribbon, and across the mantel was a strip of crash with a bit of outline needle-work upon it. The missionary reported that this has as good an effect in the kitchen as it possibly could have in tenements, that the maids had begun to pin up on the walls some of the prints from the magazines, and that they had bought two more pots of flowers and a canary. Pursuing this idea farther, the missionary bought a book-shelf, and filled it with books.

"I observe," said she, "that all people who follow an industry are supplied or supply themselves with the literature of their trade. But no one supplies house-servants with books to tell them how to improve their service, and yet most of them know how to read."

So she bought several cook-books, including Juliet Carson's, and books of advice to young house-keepers, and books that tell how to live on five hundred a year, and selections from the large supply of excellent matter that experienced housewives write for the benefit of those less experienced, and finally she subscribed to a magazine devoted to such matters. It was suddenly revealed to her that the mistresses had been reading these things all the time, while those who were in far greater need of instruction never had an opportunity to improve their minds. This literature had not the sudden success of a Virginia author's novel, but in course of time the gay bindings and pictures attracted attention, and the book-shelf got patronage. The effect was not long in appearing. The magazine was looked forward to and read with interest, and a thousand new suggestions as to possible ways of doing and improving their work were gathered and acted upon.—[Harper's Bazar.]
