THE GRAY MASQUE AND OTHER POEMS.

With an autograph introductory, and other poems specially prepared by Edwin Arnold. Handsomely illustrated and daintily finished, $1.25.

THE EVOLUTION OF DODD.

By WILLIAM HAWLEY SMITH. Extra cloth, 12mo, $1.

This remarkable book is destined to create as great a stir, in its way, as "Ginx's Baby," although entirely different in style. It treats of phases of young life as seen through the spectacles of a keen-eyed man, sharp enough to let none of the intricacies of the newer systems of education evade him. It should be read by every parent, teacher, and public school officer. For pure amusement, in watching Dodd's "evolution," it is one of the richest books of the season.

BACCALAUREATE SERMONS.

By REV. A. P. PEABODY, D.D., LL.D. 12mo, $1.25.

These sermons, delivered before the graduating classes of Harvard University, it is safe to say are not excelled by any productions of their kind. They are not only rarely appropriate, as addressed to educated young men upon the threshold of active life, but are models of logical thought, and graceful rhetoric worthy the study of all.

IN CASE OF ACCIDENT.

By DR. A. SARGENT. Price 60 cents.

This little hand-book is worth its weight in gold, and should be found on the most convenient shelf of every family library. The aim of the author, who is connected with the Harvard College Gymnasium, is to give such practical information as will aid to self-preservation in times of danger, and to teach a few of the simplest methods of meeting the common accidents and emergencies of life. The illustrations are numerous and excellent.

RED LETTER STORIES.

PRICE 60 CENTS.

HOW SUCCESS IS WON.

(Little Biographies. Third series.)

By MRS. SARAH K. BOLTON. Price $1.00.

This is the best of the recent books of its class: its "successful men" are Americans, and with two or three exceptions are living and in the full tide of business and power. The facts have been furnished to the author by the subject of the biography, or by family friends; and Mrs. Bolton has chosen from this authentic material that which most fully illustrates the successive steps by which success has been gained. A portrait accompanies each biography.
