

- (d) Notwithstanding paragraphs III.B(2)(a) and (b) above, if a cooperating Party believes that a particular Cooperative Activity is likely to lead to or has led to the creation of intellectual property protected by the laws of one or more cooperating Parties but not the other cooperating Party(s), the cooperating Party(s) whose laws provide for this type of protection shall be entitled to equal rights to exploit or license intellectual property worldwide although creators of intellectual property shall nonetheless be entitled to awards, bonuses and royalties as provided in paragraph III.B(2)(a).
- (e) For each invention made under any Cooperative Activity, the cooperating Party employing or sponsoring the inventor(s) shall disclose the invention promptly to the other cooperating Party(s) together with any documentation and information necessary to enable the other cooperating Party(s) to establish any rights to which it or they may be entitled. The other cooperating Party(s) may ask the cooperating Party employing or sponsoring the inventor in writing to delay publication or public disclosure of such documentation or information for the purpose of protecting its or their rights in the invention. The delay shall not exceed a period of six months from the date of disclosure by the inventing cooperating Party to the other cooperating Party(s).
