

Government Orders

The hon. member for Kingston and the Islands on a point of order.

Mr. Milliken: Mr. Speaker, I just wanted to clarify the situation. If the vote on the amendment that is now before the House were to take place early tomorrow, is it then possible to move other amendments to the motion that has been proposed? If so, I presume that Your Honour is allowing that to take place and the amendments would not necessarily have to follow the groupings that Your Honour has divided for the purposes of the vote. In other words, any amendment would be disposed of first.

Mr. Speaker: If I understand the hon. member's question correctly, I think that the answer is in accord with the hon. member's suggestion. I would however ask the hon. member to discuss the matter with me, perhaps just after adjournment, or with one of our table officers just to be sure that we completely understand the issue.

I think that I do understand it and I do not think that there is a problem, if I can put it that way.

It being six o'clock p.m., this House stands adjourned until tomorrow at eleven o'clock a.m., pursuant to Standing Order 24 (1).

The House adjourned at 6.01 p.m.
