Dear General Currie,

I want my boy to deliver you this letter before you leave for England. — Needless to tell you again how grateful I am to you for your kind reception to my son & my nephew. — They will thank you on their arrival, but I should like to use the opportunity of your coming over to England & France for doing it on my own account. —

In your letter of April 25th, you say you expect to be in France by the end of August. — I am to carry out a Staff-journey in the Alps from August 8th to Aug. 22nd. May I hope these duties will not prevent me from meeting you either when you
