

works: I still have "Hind's Feathers" among my treasured books of verse.

Now I propose shortly to give a lecture on Pauline Johnson - "but we forget" you know - & I am anxious to obtain a copy of "My Mother". The buying of books is, at present, beyond my means & I cannot obtain the loan of a copy of that particular book from any source (I have tried the National Central Library)