

Sir. I have interviewed you in Ottawa I have not been able to secure a permanent appointment in a clerical capacity in the Canadian Army Pay Corp. I asked our officer (Lieut. Cook) today how long we are likely to be here and he replied that he didn't know. I then asked him if he thought there is any probability of my getting to British Bombay in a clerical capacity and he said "I cannot get you back myself but I think Col. Regan can." After thinking the matter over I decided to write and ask you if you would kindly see your influence with Col. Regan to secure me, if possible, a permanent clerical position in the Canadian Army in British Bombay.
 I hope you will pardon my troubling you again but I have come to the conclusion that it will be better at my age (49) to get a government position than my business life again.
 I beg to congratulate you on your high

Sir Arthur Justice
