

For Finance Committee.

Dean Barton suggests that we remit the fees at Macdonald College to the best graduate from Truro each year. These boys would take their third and fourth year at Macdonald and the amount involved would only be $100 per annum. By this action we make certain of getting all the Truro students who are of good class. It is interesting to note that while formerly all these students went to Guelph, they are now coming to Macdonald.

March 12, 1930.