

CONTENTS

OF

THE SECOND VOLUME.

CHAPTER I.

The party attacked by the natives at the Wallah Wallah river
—Two killed—Encamp on an island for safety—Indians demand two white men as a sacrifice—Arrival of a chieftain;
—His speech, and peace restored 1

CHAPTER II,

Author and party lost in a snow-storm—Curious instance of mental abstraction—Poor Pomo —Arrive at Spokane House
—A marriage — Great ravine — Agates — Hot-springs—
Kitchen-garden — Indian manner of hunting the deer—
Method adopted by the wolves for the same purpose—Horse-racing—Great heat 25

CHAPTER III.

Letter from Mr. Stuart—His account of New Caledonia—
Navigation of the Columbia obstructed by ice—Miserable situation of the party during the winter—Author frost-bitten—Amusements—Departure of Mr. Keith—His letters—
Author and party quit their winter encampment—Rapid change of seasons—Arrive at Fort George 44

VOL. II.

a

152083