From page 4 to 23 are copies of W. H. Bartlett's famous steel engravings done in 1839. Originals loaned by Judge D. Girouard. The pictures are of the following cities and places: Halifax, N.S. (4); Windsor, N. S. (5); St. John, N.B. (6); Fredricton, N.B. (7); Quebec (8-9-10-11); Sherbrooke (12); Lake Memphramagog (13); Montreal (14); Prescott (15); Kingston (16); Coburg (17); Toronto (18); Bytown (Ottawa) (19-20-21-22); Scene up the Ottawa (23).	4 to 23
In 1855, Wm. S. Hunter, jr., was sent to Boston by a number of Ottawa's wealthy citizens—with thirteen sketches of Ottawa and vicinity. These were lithographed and a very few sets printed, so that these pictures are even more rare than the "Bartletts." They run from page 24 to 30. These were loaned by Mr. Francis McDougall.....	24 to 30
The one on page 31 is also a "Hunter," done two years before. I found the picture at the Archbishop's Palace. Canon Bouillon kindly presented it to me. In searching for the story of the incident pictured, I found the one man of the nine still living. I took his photograph and reproduce the two on the same cut, making it unique in picture—the incident and the man—fifty-one years intervening.	31
