SOUTH BUCKS IS SAFELY UNIONIST

LONDON, Feb. 19 .- The South Buckingham by-election resulted in a Unionist majority of 2331, as follows: W. B. Dupre, Unionist, 9044; Tonman Mosley, Radical, 6713. The electorate numbers 18,286, and in the last election the Unionist majority was 2556. The constituency embraces several small towns, some of which contain the residences of a large number of London business men. It is understood a large proportion of this section of the elec ors did not vote.

The chair makers on strike at High Wycombe decided to ignore both can-Lord Parmoor (Sir Edward Cripps) whose elevation to the peerage caused the present vacancy, won the seat from radicalism in 1910. The Unionists did not expect to score as large a

TANGO LESSONS FOR NOTHING

Do you Tango? If not, would you like to learn? Would you like to learn the Tango as well as all the other fashionable dances? If so, here is your golden opportunity; it will cost you nothing to take lessons from the greatest exponents in the world of the latest dance move-

All you have to do is to cut the dance coupon which will be published in The World next Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday mornings. This will entitle you to take advantage of The World's enterprise in arranging with the Alice Lloyd Co. to give free lessons after each matinee day next week. If you do not know the Tango this tuition will give you the rudiments, so that you can easily master the art in very few lessons. If you do dance the Tango, these lessons, given by experts, will make you more proficient. Now, be sure and watch for coupons next Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday mornings, and this, with your seat check, will permit you to go on the stage of the Alexandra Theatre and receive a lesson, or you can remain and sergeants of the Toronto Garrison seated and watch the instructors, but everyone who remains must have a Sergeants' Association are holding couron climed from The World of the date on which you attend. The coupon clipped from The World of the date on which you attend. The school opens immediately after the matinee performance each day and lasts for one hour.
