JBLIC OPINION IN GREECE CLAMORS FOR WAR

RENCH GARLYG VICTORY OVER GERMANS IN VOSGES AND ALSACE SIATIC FORTS ON INNER STRAITS ARE UNDER TERRIFIC FIRE

THE BOMBARDMENT OF THE DARDANELLES

This drawing shows the allied fleet, led by Britain's greatest battleship, the Queen Elizabeth, smashing the Turkish forts along the Dardanelles. The drawing was prepared especially for The Toront o World and The New York Herald by G. A. Coffin, The Herald's noted marine artist, from ca bled descriptions of the operations.

CANADIAN BATTALIONS AND PATS IN ACTION LIST OF CASUALTIES

GREECE EAGER TO AID ALLIES; KING OPPOSED THE CABINET RESIGNS

No Names of Dead Appear, But the Wounded Include Two Toronto Men and Soldiers From All Parts of anadian contingent, as well as the Princess Patricia Regiment, were in action in the trenches last week is shown by the official list of casualties issued from Ottawa last night. A Canadian Associated Press cable last night contained the information that Major Hamilton Gault of the Princess Pats had been admitted to Shorncliffe Hospital, suffering from a bullet wound in the right forearm. Lieut. H. R. Alley's injury was told in a cable to The World from John A. Mac-

Laren last week. Corporal George Stewart Le Mesurier, who is suffering from a gunshot wound in the chest, and is at a hospital in Boulogne, is a nephew of George E. Le Mesurier, general manager of the Imperial Bank, Queen and Yonge street, who lives at 63 Isabella He enlisted with a Winnipeg nent for the first contingent, and 32 years old. He was born in India ing the time his late father was an fficer in the imperial army. He had lived in Winnipeg for several years, having an extensive practice as a civil attack on

n waters

The official list of casualties issued ast night follows:
Second Battalion.

Wounded—March 3: Lieut. William John Doxsee. Next of kin Mabel AgDoxsee (wife), Campbellford, Ont.

Canadian Press Despatch.

LONDON, March 7.—A Third Battalion. Wounded-Lieut. H. R. Alley, admitted to No. 2 British Red Cross Hos-pital, Rouen, Feb. 21. Nature of wounds not reported. Next of kin, Henry Ruttan Alley, Toronto.

Fifth Battalion.
Wounded—Pte. G. H. Slaughter, adwitted to Royal Victoria Hospital, Netlat March 2. Nature of wounds not reported. Next of kin. Mrs. E. V. No. 10 Vauxhall street, Norwich, her.
Pte. Ernest S. Cooper, admitted to sixth general hospital, Rouen, gunshot wound. Next of kin, Mrs. Mary Coper, (wife), Walmsley Vicarage, Bolton, Lancs., Eng.

Lancs. Eng. Seventh Battal'on Wounded—Pte. Daniel Roderick Mc-

(Continued on Page 5, Column 3)

Italy Cannot Remain Neutral Much Longer

Attack by Allies on the Dardanelles Has Brought Up Three Great Questions Affecting Italian Interests.

Canadian Press Despatch.

ROME, March 7 .- (Via Paris.) -The Giornale d'Italia, which, altho i is not the official government organ, represents the political majority supporting the cabinet, in an editorial argues that it will be difficult for Italy longer to remain neutral, declaring that the attack by the allied fleet on the Dardanelles has brought up three great problems affecting Italian

"The future of these problems," the newspaper says, "is the new rule to allow Russia access to the Mediterranean thru the Dardanelles; the second concerns the equilibrium of the Balkans, and, the third, the partition of Asiatic Turkey, which affects the equilibrium of the eastern Medi-

LOSS OF SUBMARINES

More Than Seven Sunk Since Daily Telegraph Asks Pertinent Blockade Started, Says

LONDON, March 7 .- A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Co. from Amsterdam says: "A correspondent of The Berliner Tageblatt declares that since the beginning of the blockade seven British merchantmen have been sunk, but admits that, according to news received in Berlin from neutral countries, more than seven German submarines have been sunk during the same period .. "The German admiralty," the Ex-change Telegraph correspondent says, "publishes no information concern-ing the loss of submarines."

Great Results Are Coming!

You may look for all kinds of surpris-ing news from now on. It may yet be far from the cheering point; we are near the more than hopeful attitude.

IF PIRATES, WILL THEY BE TREATED AS SUCH?

Question Regarding Fate of German Crew.

ntervention Appears Certain and Call to Colors Goes Out-Venizelos, Retiring Premier, Acclaimed By Populace—Zaimis to Form Ministry.

Canadian Press Despatch.

the ways, with himer king exerting his siderable time, seeing that it must be influence to maintain the neutrality of his country in opposition to Eleutherios Venizelos, the retiring premier, and Geneva before March 11. The opinion is expressed by many at Geneva that there is to be a general mobilization of the Greek army.

The opinion intry gins have been actually intrana destroyed. I hear from an excellent source that the casualties so far on all the allied battleships together only amount to three killed and five wound-of the Greek army. Telegraphing from Athens The Exchange Telegraph correspondent says that the university students in the Greek capital made a demonstration in of immediate action by Greece. The legations of the triple entente powers were visited by the students and

QUEEN ELIZABETH IS POUNDING BIG FORTS ON ASIATIC SHORES SMYRNA HEAVILY BOMBARDED

The Seal of This War

The real seal of this world-wide was is all around the Mediterranean Sea-the Greece, Turkey, all the Balkan states,

Russia; all the north coast of Africa,

reaches to Asia by way of Japan and

Religions Involved

of men: white and dark, yellow and bronzed; East Indians, Japs, Caucasians,

Turks, Arabs, Latins, Germans, Greeks,

English, Irish, Scotch, Canadians, Australasians; Mohammedans, Christians (Protestants, Catholic Greek), Buddhists

Shintos. Two of the rulers engaged are spiritual heads as well; czar and sul an.

Cold climates and warm climates are nvolved: Russia wants Constantinople

and the Black Sea for warm sea ports, instead of the frozen ones in the Baltic, and on the Siberian shores of the Paworld of history and pre-Christian times:

Greece, Italy, Babylon, Persia, the land of the Jews, Egypt, etc. It goes everymanity made is struggles of the past.

And It is maritime in every sense and

Where We Come In

And it is this maritime interest that rings in Britain and her dominions

Where the Kaiser Falls Down

in its broadest sense!

It includes the area of the old

Germans in Exclusive Control of Turk Capital

Defence of Constantinople Entrusted to Gen. Von Sanders, While Prefect of Police Will Be in Control of Civil Population.

LONDON, March 8.—(12.30 a.m.)—"According to the latest advices received here," says a Reuter despatch from Sofia, "the sultan and the government are still in Constantinople. The government is prepared to cross to Asia Minor at any moment, but the sultan is in favor of remain-

FLEET FIRE SOON SMASHED DARDANELLES BATTERIES

Allied Warships Proceeded Steadily With Work of Reducing Turkish Forts, Met With Speedy Sucin Belgium and France; but once that is settled it goes to the greater area of "The powder magazine of one of the very country that touches the Mediterranean: France, Spain, Portugal, Italy, was damaged.

BY GEORGE RENWICK. iel Cable to The Toronto World.

ATHENS, March 8 .- The bombardnent of the Dardanelles forts, according to the latest news, proceeds with success and cautious thoroness. It is now anticipated that before another two weeks are over the allied feet will be in the Sea of Marmora and Constantinople, so often threatened by foreign guns, will quickly fall to the victorious allies. Two features of the operations make extreme caution necessary for the attacking battle-ships. In the first place the number of mines laid in the straits has been LONDON. March 7, 10.45 p.m.— found to be enormous. They must all Greece apparently is at the parting of be picked up and the work takes condone thoroly. Turks Learn From Germans. The Turks have evidently learned their lesson from their German task masters, for they are also using floating mines which they cast upon the swift current to be floated down to A despatch to the Havas Agency at the sea. These swirl round the capes at the mouth of the straits, and going Paris from Athens says the newspapers considered there as certain the intervention of Greece in the European conflict. Several opinions are expressed with regard to the extent of Greece's co-operation with the assist. A despatch from Geneva says all the Greek army officers in Switzerland were recalled Saturday. Other Greeks of a This requires time and great precision military age must present themselves of marksmanship. The latest advices at the offices of the consul-general in are to the effect that something like Geneva before March 11. The opinion fifty guns have been actually hit and

Eye Witness' Story.
"I have had an interesting talk with a man who has just arrived here from Tenedos Island, who, from the height of Mount Ilios, witnessed the bom-Are they to be regaled in some country mansion and provided with a retinue of servants, or are they to be treated as prates? It is childish to denounce certain acts as piracy; if having caught some of the persons of mental conditions under which our countrymen are held optisoners in the mean conditions under which our countrymen are held optisoners in the mean conditions with the rescue of the officers and crew of the US. The Daily Telegraph as the legations of the triple elegations of the triple elegations of the triple elegations of the triple elegations of the triple enterts to with the rescue of the officers and crew of the US. The Daily Telegraph asks what is to be their fate?

King's Disapproval.

M. Venizelos yesterday announced the resignation of himself and his cablest as King Constantine did not approve the policy of the government.

M. Venizelos yesterday announced the resignation of himself and his cablest as King Constantine did not approve the policy of the government.

M. Venizelos yesterday announced the resignation of himself and his cablest as King Constantine did not approve the policy of the government.

M. Venizelos yesterday announced the resignation one. At first the same miles out to see from the entrance to the straits. It afforded an inspiring spectacle as the ships came along and took up a position, and the picture became most awe-inspiring. The bombardment at first was slow. Shells from the various ships went screaming the allowed to move the reaster boundaries and the resignation of the setting to see the segations of the triple and the resignation of the straits. It afforded an inspiring spectacle as the ships came along and took up a position, and the picture became most awe-inspiring. The bombardment at first was slow. Shells from the extraits. It afforded an inspiring to next as the ships came along and took up a position, and the picture became most awe-inspiring. The bombardment at first was slow. Shells were the same the same than the search of weither the search of the strai

Indirect Fire on Straits' Fortresses While Cruisers Inside Dardanelles are Busy---Important Operations in Gulf of Smyrna.

Britain's Colossal Fighting

Machine, From Position in Gulf of Saros, Maintains danelles fortifications was constructed by the allied fleet, at to an official statement issue evening. The communication "The British battleship Que aboth, posted in the Gulf of bembarded by indirect first works on the Asiatic side, along the state and defending the of March 5, three cruisers stationed in the Guif of Saros bombarded by indirect fire across the Gallipoli Peninsula the Turkish forts at Kalid Bahr, which guard the European coast of the narrow strait between that point and Chanak.

mid-world sea. For us Britishers and for the French, Belgians, Hollanders and for the French, Belgians, Hollanders and the Baltic Europeans it is immediately Dardanelles. The results of the bomwas damaged.

"During the day of March 5 three vessels of the allied fleet bombarded from a great distance the fort at Yas-Egypt, Palestine, Arabia; the road and trade of India, the Red Sea, etc. It of Smyrna, which was seriously damaged, and was unable to make reply.

The ministry of war announces that owing to the situation in the Dar-danelles and in order to meet every eventuality, the government has de-cided to concentrate in north Africa an expeditionary force, which will be ready to put to sea at the drst sign that it is needed and be directed to the point where its presence is requir-

Bombardment of Smyrna.

The Athens correspondent of the Havas Agency, in a despatch dealing with the bombardment of the forts at Smyrna, which was commenced by an English squadron Friday, says that the ships opened a hot fire on the Turkish batteries situated on the Mountain Dyo Adelphi, He adds that "the resulting damages are unknown."

"Five mine sweepers are working in the Gulf of Smyrna," says the correspondent. "Five steamers, four Grecian and one Dutch, hastily left where, almost to all the seats of great the Port of Smyrna.

"News from the Island of Chios says that two English dreadnoughts, two submarines and one cruiser arrived today at Vryoule (Vurla?). The Smyrna forts opened fire during the afternoon, but the British ships were undamaged."

Gave Formal Notice

The old and the newer world was made and unmade by maritime power: by and unmade by maritime power: by Greece, by the Phoenicians, by Italy, Spain, France, Holland, England all in turn. And Britain has now the greatest maritime leadership the world has ever known; and Germany has set out to wreck it if she can. The kalser had a double program: to wreck British maritime supremacy and to create a new one for himself in the far east, at Constantinguic. alied fleet yesterday commenced operations in the Gulf of Smyrna, a squadron consisting of a British battleship with a cruiser and some destroyers having arrived the previous day at Vryoule. Notification that a bombard-ment was about to take place was having prevailed from the start-the end draws near and the chance of making an investment second to none is rapidly passing beyond you. In view of the new war tax and the fact that European furs may not come to this country in any quantity next sea-son, a purchase now is certain to prove extremely profit-able. It would be careful look over these

(Continued on Page 5, Column 1.) Dineen Fur Sale Nearing the End.
After a wonder