

NORTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW-YORK, To wit:

BE IT REMEMBERED, that on the twenty-first day of March, Anno Domini, 1833, JOSIAH PRINCE, of the said district, hath deposited in this office a book, the title of which is in the words following, to wit: "American Antiquities, and Discoveries in the West: Being an exhibition of the evidence that an ancient Population of partially civilized Nations, differing entirely from those of the present Indians, peopled America, many centuries before its discovery by Columbus. And Inquiries into their Origin, with a copious description of many of their stupendous works, now in ruins. With Conjectures concerning what may have become of them. Compiled from travels, authentic sources, and the Researches of Antiquarian Societies. By JOSIAH PRINCE." The right whereof he claims as author and proprietor—In conformity with an Act of Congress, entitled An Act to amend the several Acts respecting Copy Rights.
