

Hands. What Success may we not expect, what Invasions need we fear, if the same Unanimity and Loyalty, which are paid to our King and Country, be joined also in the Exercise of Religion and Worship to our God. Praises and Thanksgivings will be the most powerful Intercessions^{our} at the Throne of Grace for Blessings on any People; these the only Refuge in Times of Danger; these the only Means of Security in Times of Peace and Tranquility. And while we are returning Thanks for past Mercies, in humble Trust and Confidence let us hope for more; among which let us principally implore God, that He would be pleased to take our most gracious Sovereign and his faithful Ally into his Protection against all the Assaults of their Enemies, and that He would keep them safe under the Shadow of his Wings, until this Tyranny be over-past. And among our many late Blessings, let it never be forgot how