

- draft bill, 312; difficulties of, 319, 321, 402; question raised by Duffy, 373; report of Vict. select committee, 382; colonial proposals for, 383.
- Democracy, Australian, attitude towards federation, 276.
- Denison, Sir Wm., settles Queens. boundary, 28; criticises customs union and general assembly, 145, 147, 153; non-intervention in inter-colonial politics, 249, 250; position of Governor-General, 250-1.
- Dickson, Dr., supports federation, 353.
- Discriminatory Duties, opposition of Br. gov't to, 41; despatch of Lord Stanley, 47, 48; disallowance of N.S.W. act, 49; abolition of by V.D.L., 51; despatch of Earl Grey, 61; report of Privy Council, 96; prohibited by Aust. Col. Bill, 1849, 121; and by bill of 1850, 177; opposed by Denison, 150-1; attitude of Br. parliament, 215.
- Disraeli, Hon. B., criticises committee of Privy Council, 93, 94; attacks Aust. Col. Bill, 200.
- Donaldson, Hon. S. A., favors federal conference, 355, 356, 357, 358, 360.
- Downing Street, lack of statesmanship, 7, 37, 90, 282; federal policy, 222, 254.
- Duffy, Gavan, enters Aust. politics, 321; attitude on independence, 322; takes up federal cause, 323; select committee, 323, 324, 330, 333; adoption of report, 333-5; correspondence with colonies, 338; moves for select committee, 368; policy on federation, 371, 372; moves for select committee, 373, 374, 381, 384; efforts fail, 397; moves for select committee, 398; nationalistic report and speech, 401, 402; gives up federal efforts, 408; influence on movement, 415.
- Dutton, Mr., criticism of general assembly, 161, 164, 256.
- FAWKNER, J. P., opposes federation, 321, 335, 336.
- Federal Assembly, suggested by memorial, 304, 305-6, 308, 312-5; significance of name, 311; subsequent proposed organization of, 327-8, 343, 344, 351.
- Federation, germ of, Chapter I; Grey's proposal, 61-2; character of report of Privy Council, 106, 114; relation of federal and colonial gov't's, 124-6; Denison's criticism, 153-4; distribution of powers, 164; federal supremacy, 193; const. defects of Grey's scheme, 223; colonial opposition to, 224; criticism of early federal efforts, 225-6; recommendation of N.S.W. Const. committee, 260; and of Vict. Const. committee, 270; independence and federation, 285-6; supported by press, 295; Thompson's plea for, 297; Aust. Association memorial, 303-7, 311-5; report of Vict. select committee, 326-332; Duffy's conception of, 331; Burton resolutions, 343; Thompson resolutions, 344; report of N.S.W. select committee, 347-351; resolutions of S.A. select committee, 363-5; Gregson's proposal, 375; resolutions of Tas. Leg. Assembly, 377, 379; attitude of Tas. parliament, 381; and of the Queensland gov't, 386, 406; and of the N.S.W. Leg. Ass., 390; Waterhouse resolutions, 392, 395-6; report of Duffy committee, 401; Tas. instructions, 404-5; attitude of N.S.W. Leg. Ass., 406-7; and of S.A. parl., 407; resolution of customs union conference, 408; stages of federal movement, 409; causes of failure, 410-417.
- Finance, Federal, report of Privy Council, 98, 111; Bill of 1849, 119-20; Denison's discussion, 145-6, 149-50; Bill of 1850, 185-7; criticism in S.A., 164; report of N.S.W. select committee, 260, 265; and of Aust. Association, 306, 309; Wentworth's views, 314; opinion of Labouchere, 315; Thompson's resolutions, 344-5.
- Fitzroy, Gov. C. A., suggests appointment of Governor-General, 55; criticises Grey's constitution, 86; appointed Gov.-Gen., 227; tenure of office as Gov.-Gen., 238, 246, 249.
- Forster, Hon. Wm., Col. Sect. of N.S.W., 384, 385; opposes federation, 407.
- Foster, J. F. L., resolution on general assembly, 74, 77; Vict. Const. committee, 269, 271, 272; unpopular policy, 276; member Duffy select committee, 324.
- Free Trade, Imperial, policy of, 41, 47; effect on colonial tariffs, 48, 49.