Custody Parcels Taken Over.

Custody parcels have recently been taken over from the records office. These are parcels of documents from the regiments in France, which include many papers of historical importance and value. There are thousands of these custody parcels, and it has been necessary that the war records office move to a warehouse building in that part of London called "the city," in order to secure the space required.

Canada Food Board, said today that it was realized that the restrictions on the use of wheat products and meat would entail certain difficulties so far as arrangements for picnics were concerned, but that it was importance that the war records office move to a warehouse building in that part of London called "the city," in order to secure the space required.

The more important actions will be more fully described, but due space will be given to the astonishing raids which have been a feature of Canadian warfare. The history of each brigade will be contained in a separate booklet.

ate booklet.

On Canadian V. C.'s.

A book of tense, short stories with a strong personal appeal, describing the actual occurrences in France, is also being prepared. It will contain twenty-five to thirty stories, which will do much to bring the personal side of the war close to the people at home.

An illustrated handbook on Canadian V. C.'s' containing a description of their deeds, is also to be issued. There will be also a book on other honors and awards with descriptions of the more spectacular deeds.

These are some of the activities in hand at the moment and suffice to give an idea of the important work which is now being done in making Canada's part in the war known, and in preparing the material for the enlightenment of Canadians in the future.

Henry B. Thomson, chairman of the Canada Food Board, said today that

The Canadian war records office has been distinguished by an ability to supply the public with the sort of information that has an appeal. The result has been that public interest has been roused to the extent that these features which have done so much to place Canada in the limelight, have cost the Canadian public nothing, having paid for themselves.

of the allies could not be mustered against the Germans.

Senator Reed said he was opposed to preparing for the prosecution of this war in "a piecemeal fashion," and warned against over-confidence.

"Let us not deceive ourselves," he declared, "for Germany up to this day has been triumphant in this war. It has been triumphant in this war. It is time to quit day-dreaming. Germany has today, even with the million Americans on the front, an advantage in men, according to information I get. I am very sure she has an advantage in metal. I am also very sure if the war is won it must be by the United States putting forth so great an effort that we have not begun to dream of it."

Chesley, June 27.—Mrs. Macdonald, wife of W. Macdonald, M.L.A. for North Bruce, was badly burned on the right side, right arm and hands by her clothing catching fire when cleaning a dress with gasoline. She was alone in the house at the time, and with great presence of mind extinguished the greater part of the flames by wrapping a rug around her before a neighbor girl arrived and beat out the fire. The doctors are hopeful of saving Mrs. Macdonald's life.

Jesuits May Apply to Court for Justification of the Order in Canada.

Montreal, June 27.—Civil proceedings against a number of Protestant clergymen who have figured in connection with the troubles over the Guelph novitiate may be taken, Father William Power, visitor of the order, announced today.

"We are discussing the point," Father Power said. "Whether we will seek redress in the courts has not yet been decided. If we do decide to so proceed, it will not be from any spirit of vindictiveness, however, but merely to justify the Jesuit Order. We have already received an ample apology from the government for what has taken place, but none so far from those who inspired the events."

ASK TEACHERS TO RESIGN.

New Liskeard, June 27.—Trouble brewing between the assistant teachers on the staff of the local public school and the principal came to a head last night when the trustees, at their meeting, requested the whole body of teachers to resign. Last week the members of the staff presented to the board what was practically an ultimatum, stating that unless the principal was ousted the whole staff would quit. The teachers took exception to the headmaster's methods of dealing with the staff and pupils, and requested the board to hold an investigation.
