PACK TRAIL THROUGH WHITE PASS OPEN.

A Fleet of Boats Will be Ready on the Opening of Navigation.

G. W. F. Johnson Writes From Dawson City That the Hardships Are Somewhat Exaggerated-The Average Temperature in Winter is Twenty Degrees Below Zero; Says Mr. Weare of Chicago-The British Yukon Company Will Build a Railroad at Once in View of the Great Rush to the Klondike District-News About Canada's Wonderful Gold Strike.

Montreal, July 29.—Mr. C. H. Wilkinson, Canadian representative of the British Yukon Com, and confirms the report that the White Pass pack trail, over the summit to the pass, was opened for travel on July 16. Not only was the pass opened for pack travel, he said, but the company had completed arrangements for placing a fleet of between 10 and 20 steamboats on the Yukon River as soon as the river opens next spring. The boats have already been contracted for and will be in readiness for the first opening of navigation. They will be flat-bottomed with stern wheels, much the same style as the Mississippi and Ohio river craft. They will draw when light only some eight inches of water, and when loaded about 20 inches. The lakes along the Yukon are quite deep, but the rivers are shallow in places, necessited. tating light draught boats. Half this fleet will ply between the point where the trail the heart of the Klondike district. This distance is 650 miles. The other half of tween Miles' Canyon and the mouth of the around the Aleutian Islands and up Norton Sound. Mr. Wilkinson says that it is glory, when Klondike was considered no good.

The Alaska Commercial Company and the North American Transportation and Trading Company have concentrated their forces and supplies here. The Alaska Commercial Company is in charge of a young man full of push, and who evinces a desire to accommodate and serve the people. Every effort is being made this year to have provisions in store for the coming winter. The steamers Bella ad Alice, with barges, will make five trips each from St. Michael's, bringing about 450 tons each trip, making about 450 tons for this company alone.

The fighting was very severe. Thirteen of the British were killed and 30 wounded, the latter including Lieut. Castollo. The tribesmen lost 100. The worst feature of the situation now is that the garrison is short of ammunition, and it is feared the whole supply will be exhausted before reinforcements arrive. The Government is making the greatest effort to get succor through in time.

inforcements and at 10 o'clock at night renewed the attack with, equal determination, charging, as on Monday night, right up to the breastworks. They were repulsed, however, at all points. The British losses were much smaller than on the previous night, being only three officers wounded and two native soldiers killed and eight wounded. The enemy retired at daybreak, carrying off their dead, but the British soldiers were too much fatigued to pursue them. A renewal of the attack is expected to-night (Thursday), but the troops are so strongly intrenched that no anxiety is felt as to the result.

Heavy Losses Inevitable. Major Taylor has died from his wounds. The list of casualties well llustrates the necessity for an increase in the number of British officers in the Taylor Bremen.

in the number of British officers in the native regiments. Heavy losses are almost inevitable in this sort of fighting, and the officers are bound to expose themselves while leading their men.

As the operations will be carried on on a comparatively large scale, all the forces, including reinforcements now en route, will be formed into a division of two brigades, with a complete staff, the whole under command of Col. Sig Bin-
