Everywhere on Saturday—Notes of the Rugby Game.The annual meeting of the Intercollegiate Rugby Union was held at Kingston on Saturday, with 14 delegates present, when considerable important business was transacted, and officers for the year elected. It was decided to allow the champion team to play the champions of other unions this year only, but next season and in future, according to present intentions, play will cease with the conclusion of the college season.Members of the faculty will be allowed to participate in intercollegiate matches. This was specially provided for the benefit of Trinity University.Members of the champion team will annually be presented with souvenir badges, and the Executive Committee will also receive tokens of appreciation.Officers were elected as follows: Hon.
President, Dr. J. H. Macdonald; Vice-President, Mr. J. H. Macdonald; Secretary, Mr. J. H.
Macdonald; Treasurer, Mr. J. H. Macdonald; Representative, Mr. J. H. Macdonald.The championship of the season was won by the Ontario team, who defeated the Quebec team, 14 to 0, in a game played at Kingston on Saturday.The victory of Ontario College over Montreal was a surprise, as the Quebec team was considered the favorite to win the championship.The Ontario team was composed of players from the following colleges: Kingston, Toronto, and Hamilton.The Quebec team was composed of players from the following colleges:
