Buick Leadership.

Buick leadership is no established fact. Even during the past year, in which many companies felt depression, Buick enjoyed an increase in business, as shown by the deliveries of Buick cars into the hands of owners during the year 1924, compared with the deliveries during the two previous years.

For instance, from July to December 31st, 1922, there were more than 60,000 new Buick automobiles delivered to owners, and during the corresponding per-iod of 1923 there were more than 75,000 new Buick cars delivered to owners and during the same period 1924 the deliveries of new Buick automobiles to owners numbered
