LOCAL MARKET. London, Tuesday, March 19. The snow which fell through the night did not improve the roads, and this fact was the probable cause of the small attendance this morning.

There was not much farm produce ofred, and there were not many market cardeners or butchers present, and conequently there was not much business ransaoted. There were only a couple of loads of ats offered, which sold at $1 16 per cwt. Ten loads of hay were marketed, and ales were slow at $12 to $13 50 per ton the farmers declare that prices will have come up or the roads improve consid erably before they will bring any more hav in. No straw offered.

Butter and Eggs-Butter is a scarce artiele at present: there was scarcely any offered today; prices were unchanged. The few eggs that were offered sold at 20c er dozen.

There was little or no poultry offered few turkeys went at 17c per 1b. Very little butchers' meat was offered. The supply of vegetables was very meager; prices were steady. essed Hogs-Not many offered; prices were higher, at $8 75 to $9 per cwt, mostly at the higher figure. The first maple syrup of the season was offered today, and sold at $1 35 per gallon. PRODUCE MARKETS.
