A largely-attended and enthusiastic meeting of ladies was held this afternoon at Wallaceburg, when Mr. McCoig's stand against the food profiteers and the C. N. R., and his determination to pursue a thoroughly independent course in Parliament, irrespective of party influences, was heartily applauded by his newly-enfranchised constituents.

Another meeting will be held Friday night at Pain Court, while arrangements have been made for the staging of two big meetings on Saturday in his committee rooms.
