Thru Kindness of Lady Pellatt the Affair Was a Splendid

Casa Loma lived up to its glorious traditions, Saturday afternoon, and hundreds of friends of the Queen's Own Rifles' Chapter, I.O.D.E., reveled in the beauties of the lovely lawns, dividing their interests between the flowers and the stalls "doing lusiness" in aid of the Q.O.R. prisoners detained in aid of the Q.O.R. prisoners detained in Germany.

Lady Pellatt, the cordial mistress of Casa Loma, received the guests with the regent of the chapter, Mrs. R. C. Levesconte, after which visitors were free to wander about the lovely grounds and wide hallways of the castle. Tea was in charge of Mrs. Jack Murray, while ice cream and cake were dispensed by a host of young assistants under the convenorable of Mrs. Boyce Thompson.

Mrs. George Crighton and Mrs. Collie Ross did a rushing business in the ice cream cone line, Old Sol doing himself justice at lest. The pooths, effectively draped in flags and bunting and bright with flowers, were a constant source of attraction. The stalls and their convenors were: Soldiers' comforts, Miss McCollum; home-made candy, Mrs. George Fensom; fortune telling, Mrs. Jack Davidson. Mrs. Sommers' pupils delighted the fisitors with their pretty dance numbers, and the Queen's Own Band gave a truly martial atmosphere. Thru the kindness of Lady Pellatt the affair was a splendid success, and the entire proceeds will be devoted to the purchasing of much-needed comforts and supplies for the regiment's prisoners of war.

PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

"MIKADO" AT THE GRAND.

"The Mikado," Gilbert and Sullivan's famous comic opera, which has entranced thousands of theatregoers all over the world for the past thirty years, will be presented by the Angeles Opera Company at the Grand Opera House this week, with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday. It was in 1855 that Gilbert and Sullivan first offered "The Mikado" to the London public. Prior to this the librettist and the composer had collaborated on a number of operas. Their joint works commenced in 1871 and included among others "Trial by Jury," "H.M. S. Pinafore," and "The Pirates of Penzance." "The Mikado" probably was the most popular of their many works. The revival should no doubt meet with the liberal patronage of the music-loving people of this city. During the week a special scale of popular prices will prevail with both the matinees at 25c and 50c.

HIPPODROME.

For this week the Hippodrome management will present as the headline attraction Eva La Rue and her "Six Broadway Beauties" in the miniature musical comedy sketch, "The Girl from Kokomo." "Betty of Graystone." one of the best of the Triangle releases, will feature the entrancing film star, Dorothy Gish with George Fawcett, well and favorably known in Toronto. Captain Tiebors Trained Seals and Sea Lions perform amusing and novel feats far above the ordinary. Cliff Bailey provokes much laughter with his unique barrel offering, while Josephine Davis, "New Star of Songland," has some new songs which she sings in her own inimitable manner. The Three Xylo-Phiends in a pleasing instrumental offering. Steadman and Huber in a comedy aerial act and feature film comedies complete the bill.

"TRILBY" AT STRAND.

All this week "Trilby," the photoplay version of George Du Maurier's celebrated novel and play, will be presented at the Strand Theatre. It is in five magnificent acts, with over 700 scenes and a like number of players. Clara Kimball Young is seen in the part of Trilby, a part which gives this superb emotional actress abundant opportunity, of which she takes full advantage, for a display of her astounding versatility of talent. She is Du Maurier's creation to the life, and Wilton Lackaye as Svengali achieves one of the most notable sucachieves one of the most notable successes of his notable career. The bill will also include a screaming Raymond Hitchcock comedy, "The Ring-Tailed Rhinoceros," an Athletic feature film and the "Strand Topical Review."

"WE ARE SEVEN" TONIGHT.

"We Are Seven," Eleanor Gates' accessful farce comedy, will receive cations keeps the audience in peals of laughter from one curtain to another. Splendid opportunities are offered every member of the company, and an augmented cast will be one of the features of the performance. Mr. Robins will be soen as Philip Avery, the yourg man who starts all the trouble. Miss Neilson will enact the role of the beautiful Diantha Kerr. The regular prices will prevail—evenings 25c to 15c, Saturday matinee 25c and 50c and Wednesday matinee all seats 25c.

LOEW'S YONGE ST. THEATRE.

Several big features are billed at Loew's this week, among which will be the clever Shaksperian travesty, "Miss Hamlet," a burlesque on the immortal "Hamlet." It is a cleverly constructed farce, a cross hetween a musical comedy and a travesty, with plenty of pretty girls interpolated to lend interest to the production. The great English comedienne, Daisy Harcourt, will return with a new collection of comedy songs and new fun. Miss Harcourt has a style of humor all her own, which never fails to please. William Grew, Gwendoline Pated and company in "Solitaire" have one of the most unique sketches in vaudeville. The Hazel Kirke Trio will offer songs, fun, dances and planolog. Dotson, the colored dancer, has invented some new steps and will offer a union specialty. Donnelly and Dorothy will offer eccentric dances and new songs. The Artois Bros. and others will be on the bill. As an extra feature the management has secured one of the most intense and gripping dramatic features of the present war. It is a story in two parts and describes the invasion of France and Belgium in 1914.

BIG WEEK AT HANLAN'S POINT

This week at Hanlan's Point promises to attract the largest crowds in the history of that favorite summer resort. Heading the big outdoor free attractions is the the Russian Juvenile CHARLIE CHAPLIN n "The Fireman," at the Madison, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Concert Band with forty-two musicians and Master S. Scskin, the youngest bandmaster in the world. Other feature attractions are the aerial Silverlakes, Carson and Campbell and Corrigan and his trained goats.

STAR THEATRE.

Commescing with today's matines, that funny little Jew, with the many laughable sayings, will be at the head of the Dandy Girls at the Star Theatre all this week. This is the last show of the regular season and a real good treat is in store for those who attend any of the performances. Others prominent in the cast are winsome Erma Windsor, Mae McCrea and Harry Crawford.

Manager Pierce will leave for New York shortly to book the best shows obtainable for next season, which will be inaugurated at the end of July.

RED CROSS SALE FOR ST. HELEN'S PARISH

grounds of the residence of Mallon and the Misses Mallon at 694 Dundas street were gay with flags and patriotic decorations on Sat-urday afternoon and evening, when a sale for the Red Cross of St. Helen's Parish was in progress. Tables were distributed about the lawn containing cakes, candies and flowers displayed in most tempting array. Among the workers and those interested were the Misses Mallon, Miss Marie Macdonell, Miss Agnes Hishon, Miss Kathleen Teeney and Mrs. Bender.

TWO WEEKS' MISSION CLOSED AT ST. FRANCIS'

A very successful two weeks' mission conducted by Rev. Fathers Sholly and McLaughlin, C.S.R., of Toronto, closed yesterday in St. Francis' Church, Grace street, Rev. W. A. McCann, pastor. One week was devoted to the women and the other to the men, the exercises beginning with five o'clock mass every morning, followed by an instruction. A second mass and instruction were given at eight o'clock, the evening devotions and sermon closing the day's exercises.

Crowded congregations and beautiful ceremonies marked the closing of each week, when a magnificent shrine brilliant with myriad lighted tapers and surrounded by flowers, was erected in the sanctuary and a procession of children advanced to the altar rails, where the renewal of baptismal vows took place, the congregation being lead by the innocent voices of the little A very successful two ones.

This morning a solemn requiem mass was sung for the departed priests and people of St. Francis' Parish. HELP RECRUITING.

The Women's Canadian Club, in response to General Logie's appeal for men in Saturday's papers, have wired that they will help in every possible way. A meeting of all members will be called in the near future.
