AL BULLOCK AT LOEW'S

ore of Sabbath Atmosphere at Recruiting Meeting Yesterday Afternoon.

There was more of a Sunday tone at the recruiting meeting at Loew's theatre yesterday afternoon, held under the auspices of the Toronto Citizens Recruiting League, and it was quite evident from the start that the criticism received had been taken in good part, and that the speakers were making the meetings more effective.

EX-CONTROLLER McCARTHY Declares Britain's Clash With Germany Was Inevitable.

MAKE FORCEFUL APPEALS Call Upon Young Men at Khaki Club Meeting to Avenge the Women of Belgium.

AN ENTHUSIASTIC RECRUITING MEETING was held last night at the Khaki Club, Queen and Dovercourt. Ex-Mayor Rocken, in a few brief remarks as chairman of the meeting, spoke of the splendid record Toronto was establishing in the number of young men who were enlisting from good positions and comfortable homes to join the men at present in France and Flanders fighting to maintain justice, liberty and civilization.

Continuing, he spoke of the bravery of the women in allowing and urging their men to avenge the women of Belgium.

The cries of the women of Belgium have been heard through the empire, and was a fitting topic for a Sunday meeting. For the last quarter century Prussianism has been systematically undermining Christianity in Germany. Eighty years ago the money subscribed to Christianize the heathen had been subscribed by the Anglo-Saxon race. The two races, with their opposing views, were bound to clash. He asked if there was a man in the audience who believed Britain should not have kept her word to Belgium on the scrap of paper. He was thankful there was not a man in the audience or in the whole British Empire who did not believe in Britain keeping her word.

SPORTSMEN'S REGIMENT INAUGURATED CAMPAIGN

Fourteen Men Responded to Appeal of Lieut. L. Marsh in Hippodrome Last Night. ALL ATHLETES WANTED

Lieut.-Col. Greer Stated Pressure Will Be So Strong That Eligibles Must Enlist.

For the first time at Sunday recruitings meetings in Shea's Hippodrome recruits were last night asked to come forward on the platform and sign up for service. The campaign was inaugurated in this theatre when Lieut. Lou Marsh of the 180th Sportsmen's Battalion made his appeal for men. Altogether three hundred men have already passed the doctors' examination and have been sworn in. The first call was made yesterday by officers of this battalion for recruits. After outlining the organization of the battalion, Lieut. Marsh asked the recruits to come before the footlights. Only one man braved the glaring lights, but at the conclusion of the meeting thirteen other men gave their names to the sergeants at the rear of the theatre.

Lieut.-Col. Greer stated that the public just as well as other battalions do in order to put it up to strength.

"Many well-known athletes have already joined the battalion, and I want all the athletes that I can get so that when we go into camp at Niagara this summer we will have teams to enter in all the soldier sporting events," he said. Lieut.-Col. Greer in conclusion said that when all the battalions start recruiting the pressure will be so strong on those medically fit that they will be practically forced to enlist. The speaker also asked the women in the audience to aid the organization in getting recruits. The pictures of the first 160 members of the battalion to enlist were shown on the screen, and the following local talent was heard to good advantage in the musical entertainment provided, in addition to the patriotic selections rendered by the brass and bugle bands of the 5th Battalion: J. H. Cameron, Grace Elicote, Howard Russell, Lillian Roberts, W. H. Norris, Florence McMullin, Margaret Park Wilson. of the Khaki Club in providing club-room, reading and writing facilities, gymnasium and plunge bath free to the boys in khaki. One day last week over eight hundred men availed themselves of the privileges. During the meeting an orchestra played several patriotic airs and J. A. Arlidge sang "The Death of Nelson." At the conclusion of the meeting pictures were shown, many of which depicted life and scenes at the front.

SHOULD FORM FIGHTING PREACHERS' BATTALION

Lt.-Col. Lennox Made Suggestion to Ministers Who Applied for Chaplaincy.

OFFICERS' INSTRUCTIONS

Order Says Men Engaged on Munitions Should Not Be Allowed to Enlist.

Lieut.-Col. T. Herbert Lennox has sent a request to about 116 ministers of various religious denominations, who have applied to him for appointment as chaplain of the Toronto Irish Fusiliers Overseas Battalion, that they enlist as "combatants and form a 'fighting preachers' company," under his command. Canadian regulation badges of rank are now worn by the shoulder-strap, but under imperial regulations they are worn on the sleeve. In consequence a regulation has been issued by the militia department that "as much as the Canadian expeditionary forces on leaving Canada, pass under the control of the imperial authorities, badges of rank in the case of officers of the C. E. F. should be worn on the sleeve, and this change must be made before going overseas. To accord with this Ottawa regulation, recruiting officers will be called upon to observe special caution with respect to factory workers. "Upon the application for enlistment of any man who is a qualified mechanic or machinist, his enlistment is not to be completed, but full particulars as to such man should be forwarded to the military authorities of the district. The commanding officer will then be informed with as little delay as possible as to whether the man's services are in any way connected with the manufacture of munitions. "No men, who are at present engaged in the manufacture of munitions, should be ever permitted to enlist. It should be pointed out to them that they are serving their country as well by carrying on their present employment and helping towards the war effort. Rumors were circulated in labor circles Sunday that the companies were preparing an agreement to put before the men. When asked last night if this was true, J. Langton said he had heard nothing of it and refused to make any further statement for publication.

VALUABLE TO OFFICERS.

Captain E. Trump of the Toronto division of the C. E. F. has by authority of Brigadier-General Logie, prepared a comprehensive book of 104 folio printed pages of instruction which may be issued from the divisional office, and thus keep the book up to date. One of the instructions issued is as follows: The commanding officer is responsible under his commission to the King for the maintenance of discipline, efficiency and a proper system of training under his command. He should possess a thorough practical knowledge of military law and of all rules and military regulations, and officers and men implicit obedience to regulations. He is not only to enforce by command, but to encourage by example, the energetic discharge of all duties. New Brant Battalion. It is expected that on the completion of the 12th Overseas Battalion, Lieut.-Col. Cutcliffe, commander, which is nearly up to strength, a new Brant County Battalion will be authorized to be commanded by Lieut.-Col. W. E. Cook. Sir Sam Hughes, minister of militia, has issued the following special order: The smoking of pipes, cigars, or cigarettes is prohibited from the date of this order within any business office, storeroom, magazine, or manufacturing plant, or any other place throughout Canada, by any person within such building. Commanding officers will be held responsible that they are strictly complied with in connection with their quarters. The Canadian Patriotic Fund has called the attention of military headquarters to the fact that in some battalions recruiting literature and posters are being used which contain definite figures of the allowances to be made by the patriotic fund as a consequence an order has been issued stating that this practice must be discontinued. Official notice was given out at military headquarters on Saturday that: "Hereafter the City of Toronto will insure in the sum of $1000 recruits for active service who are bona fide residents of Toronto prior to the outbreak of the war." 201st Battalion, Toronto Light Condition Serious.

Lieut.-Col. E. Baxter of the 14th Battalion, Cayman, who is suffering from enteric fever is still in a critical condition, the report given out last night showing no change. Lieut. M. McPhedran, A.M.C. has been detailed for duty with artillery units in camp, with the rank and pay of Captain. Honorary captain and chaplain, Rev. C. S. Bullock of the American Legion, has been raised to the rank of honorary major. Rev. W. H. Burns, D.D., of Berkeley Street Methodist Church, has been appointed chaplain to be 124th "Pals" Battalion. The Armouries Recruiting Depot is asking for 50 men for guard duty at the Welland Canal and 25 for guard duty at Kapuskasing. Military Funeral. Pte. George Clifford Bond, of "C" Company, 35th Battalion, who died at Exhibition Camp Hospital from double pneumonia, will be buried today. He was to be a military one. He was Special regimental church parades were held by overseas battalions yesterday as follows: 83rd Battalion marched to Jarvis Street Baptist; 92nd (Highlanders), to St. Giles' Presbyterian; 123rd, College Street Baptist; 124th, St. Andrew's Presbyterian; 126th, St. Anne's Anglican; 134th (Highlanders), Knox Presbyterian; 169th, half battalion, at Euclid Avenue Methodist, and half battalion at Church of the Ascension.

OUT UNTIL COMPANIES MEET THEIR DEMANDS

No Hope of Settlement Between Teamsters and Delivery Firms.

War still exists between the carters and managers of the Dominion Transport, the Canadian Northern and the Shedden Forwarding Co. The 333 drivers who went on strike Friday morning held a session Saturday in St. Andrew's Hall, and adjourned until this morning. The striking drivers are in no way connected with the local labor unions and are only organized among themselves. E. M. Compton of the department of labor, Ottawa, arrived in this city Saturday and will endeavor to square things up. The strikers' committee state that the men will stay out until the companies meet their demands. Rumors were circulated in labor circles Sunday that the companies were preparing an agreement to put before the men. When asked last night if this was true, J. Langton said he had heard nothing of it and refused to make any further statement for publication.

BUSY SHOVELING SNOW.

Street Commissioner Wilson and his snow shovelers had a busy day Saturday, 140 men being employed clearing the city's streets, as well as 25 teams and 26 single carts.

EXPECTED RUMPUS, BUT SOCIALISTS WERE CALM

Listened Complacently to Recruiting Speeches in Labor Temple Yesterday.

RED HERRING TRAILERS

Sergeant Wayman Took Rap at Workers Who Are Trying to Stop Enlistments.

That every possible way to gather men together and voice to them the necessity of joining the colors, is being exercised by officers of different overseas battalions now being recruited, was made clear yesterday. The meeting was the first time in its history, a recruiting meeting was held in the assembly hall of the Labor Temple. The meeting was under the auspices of the 169th Regiment Overseas Battalion and was staged in an effort to convince the socialists that they should be on the firing line. M. Wayman and E. J. Stephenson, members of local unions and the socialist movement, who have donned khaki, and others addressed the workers. The meeting was expected to be a stormy one as some socialist members have on more than one occasion voiced their attitude toward militarism, but those who attended were over military age. Joseph Marks, a socialist, presided, and in introducing the speakers, stated that he was always opposed to militarism. He thought militarism would be a thing of the past with a successful conclusion of the present war. In opening his address, Lieut.-Col. Wright said he had been warned that there would be a rumpus when he called for recruits, but the meeting passed over without a single interruption.

HOWLS AND WHISPERS.

After stating the position of the socialist movement, should the Huns be victorious, Quartermaster Sergeant Wayman said: "The socialist movement seems to have called to its ranks at all times a string of red herring trailers, who have switched to military economic propaganda into different lines. First we had the atheistic howler and now comes the kaiseristic whisper. "So-called Canadian socialists have said to me, 'You are a fool to throw yourself in front of the German war machine.' They also said, 'You don't care for the capitalist or his son fighting for a dollar a day.' These, the speaker declared, were a few of the cowardly phrases poured into the ears of the recruits to the men who want to enlist." Wayman then asked the socialists present what they did when he was in the socialist fight at Smith Falls, which resulted in his being placed under arrest. "You all let me stay there and said, 'We don't want to get arrested, too.'"

An Advertisement to Wives

Perhaps you don't want your husband to insure his life. The possibility of his dying suddenly seems too awful to think about. And getting money as a result of such a tragedy offends your conscience.

Well now, do you know two widows, one left comfortably provided for by life insurance money and another left destitute? Ask them what they think of life insurance. Then draw your own conclusions.

If what they say leads you to believe in life insurance—as we believe it will—ask for our free booklet "Safeguard your legacy." It will tell you about an Imperial Life Policy in which your husband can invest a few dollars each year. Then if he should die we will pay to you as long as you live—regularly—each month—a certain amount of money to keep you and the little ones from want.

CANADIAN PRISONERS IN GERMANY MOVED

OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 12.—News has been received in Ottawa of the transfer of a number of the local boys, who are prisoners of war, from the German camp at Glessen, near Frankfurt, to the camp at Celle. This camp is in Hanover, about 25 miles from Hannover City, and 130 miles from Berlin. The postcard received by a relative of one of the men stated that they are all well. The writer is one of a group of men from the 2nd Battalion, who were captured at the second battle of Ypres, and who have been at Glessen ever since. They have now been moved along with others to Celle.

Plain Everyday Justice Condemns PROHIBITION Campaign

It is impossible to believe that the temperance leaders actually contemplate the bringing on of an election at the present juncture. It is almost inconceivable; so inconceivable, in fact, that one cannot imagine the happening of such an event in this crisis of our Empire's life. Can you imagine the bringing on at the present time of an election contest upon a side issue in France or Italy or Britain?

And yet this is just what the Citizens' Committee of One Hundred actually propose to do in the Province of Ontario: to divide the country into two hostile camps, to stir up party feeling, to take up valuable time and spend valuable money, to clog the wheels of business when every nerve is strained to help save the Empire; and every ounce of energy is needed to achieve this one object, and when the Dominion Parliament has unanimously resolved to ask the Imperial Parliament for an extension of its life to avoid an election under present conditions.

But this is not all. The whole matter has been decided—decided only a few months ago—and decided not by a small, but by an overwhelming majority.

Nor is this all. The election, if held, will not indicate the real feelings of the people. The fundamental principle of all representative government is that all the people should be represented; and the unfairness of "gerrymandering," "colonization," and other devious methods is everywhere recognized. And yet here is a case where tens of thousands of good, honest electors will, from the very necessity of the case, be deprived of their votes. Why? Because they are now serving, with the colors: 120,000 of them abroad, and more than as many men at home liable to be called abroad at any moment, not to mention those who have given up their lives for the flag.

Of these, tens of thousands voted at the last election, and the great majority, as everyone knows, voted against the policy proposed by the Citizens' Committee. This is not denied; nor is it denied that the great majority of these soldiers to-day would again take exactly the same stand. As a soldier, writing to an Ontario paper recently, said: "Why don't the Committee of One Hundred wait until the boys get back from the war? Why should the Committee try to interfere with their personal liberty when the boys are not here to stand up for their rights?"

That is the point; and, even were it certain that they would all vote for Prohibition, and had no recent election taken place, the Personal Liberty League would, in the interest of plain, everyday justice, take the same position that it has taken to-day.

Why, then, it may be asked, is there such a hurry? Why this indecent haste? Surely it cannot be—we should be loth to believe it—that the Citizens' Committee think there is an opportunity now to carry their point, which they failed to do at the last election, and which they now could not carry if Canada's defenders were able to exercise their rights of free men and cast their ballot.

THE PERSONAL LIBERTY LEAGUE OF ONTARIO believes in Temperance in all things, and in its promotion, we favor the license system under proper regulation and control, but we are opposed to prohibition or any legislation which encroaches upon or curtails the purely personal liberties of our people.
