ST. PETERS DEFEAT ST. ROSES BOYS

By Score of 11 to 3—Fairville Team Go in the Air—Big Crowd See the Game.

St. Peter's won their sixth straight game last evening, defeating the St. Roses who were looked upon as dangerous rivals for the league leadership. The Fairville team was up in the air, however, and the victory stood 11 to 3 against them. Quigg started the game as pitcher for St. Peter's and was pounded all over the field and lowering him in the box in the third inning and finished the game quite respectably.

The first two innings were a runaway for St. Peter's and they started the third with nine runs to their credit. They added two in the third by heavy hitting.

St. Peter's made their scores in the last half of the third. Deberry opened by getting to first on a rummy. Quigg fled out to F. Mahoney, who made a nice catch. P. O'Toole got down to first in a hit-up, Callahan, the St. Peter's twirler was hurt. The game was waiting for a few pitches.

On resuming, Downing drove out a hit and Deberry scored. E. Mahoney missed McKinnon's grounder and O'Toole scored. Downing hit home again, scoring the third. J. O'Toole was out at first.

In the fourth, Rogers was caught out by Deberry, and Callahan was out at first. Daley fouled to J. O'Toole.

St. Peter's made a good start but failed to score. Keenan was safe at first on an error by J. McCormick, and Kelly reached first on another error by E. Mahoney. Deberry hit safely, but Kelly was caught at second. Quigg fanned, and P. O'Toole was put out at first.

In the fifth, St. Peter's went out in one, two, three order. Downing made a pretty swing of it. McCormick drove and P. O'Toole batted down E. Mahoney's long fly. Keenan got J. Dever's high one.

St. Peter's had a chance for scoring but Keanan and Downing were out at first. Downing did not reach second. O'Keefe tried to steal and went to first, but Downing safely to first, and J. O'Toole sent one to centre field, which J. Dever failed to get. Keenan died out, leaving two on base. There were about 800 people in attendance at the game.

The league standing is:

Team	Won	Lost	Tied	P.C.
St. Peter's	6	0	0	100
St. John's	5	1	0	83.3
St. John's Baptist	4	1	1	76.9

HARVARD AND YALE BOAT RACE

How the Crews Look for the Great Annual Struggle on the 25th—Crimson Strong and Elis Said to be Weak.

Boston, June 9.—The Harvard crew squads left Harvard for Red Top yesterday afternoon, where they will complete their training for the great annual race with Yale on June 25. In addition to the regular members of the "varsity eight," the following seven men were taken to constitute the four-oar boat and its substitutes: G. G. Bacon, '08; E. C. Cutler, '08; R. Ellis, '08; S. A. Fainstock, '08; R. S. Lovering, '08; C. Morgan, '08; P. Withington, '09, and coxswain M. A. King, '10. Managers Howe, Denny and Thayer will also accompany the squads. The freshman squad consists of the regular crew, Magnus Winsor and Iselin, and the six men selected from the two four-oars: Beane, Harding, Oveson, Reece, Richardson, Smith and Coxswain Everett. As Harding sprained his ankle yesterday he may not be able to go with the squad. Coach Wray left Saturday, and Assistant Coach Gill, 2nd, will accompany the crews.

Perhaps the greatest source of strength to the crew thus far is the fact that Coach Wray knew his material so well as to be able to settle on the order almost at the beginning of the year. The very first boat that went into the water, 2, contained seven of the eight men who now comprise the crew. Toward the end of October Sargent was struck out of stroke, and on October 25 five of the members of the crew, including the three stern men, occupied their present positions. Since then the only changes made are that Morgan has gone out of the boat. Severance has been shifted from the 2 to the 3 position, and the 4 position has remained at stroke throughout the year, with the exception of a few days when he was placed at 2 in the second crew, for the purpose of giving him greater length. He was put back at stroke in the "varsity crew" on March 24, and on that day the men rowed in the present order. Since then there have been no changes, and none seems likely to occur during the fifteen days of practice before the Yale boat race.

The order of the crews is: Sargent, 7; Richardson; G. Bacon; S. Waide; 4; Lunt; 3; Severance; 2; Fish; bow; Faulkner; cox; Blagden.

Varsity crew—Stroke, Cutler; 7; Hooper; 6; Eaton; 5; Withington; 4; Waite; 3; Whitney; 2; Foster; bow; Shillito; cox; Fales.

ELIS SAID TO BE WEAK.

Gales Ferry, Conn., June 9.—Old boating men on the Thames are whispering to each other that the Yale crew this year is below par. They have had their eyes glued out for every practice the Elis has taken since they came here last week, and they think that Coach Kennedy is afraid to send the eight over the course under the watch for fear of exhibiting its weakness. Kennedy has refused to let the oarsmen take a try for ten days and it is doubtful if the eight will be sent over the course on time before the race.

Kennedy has discussed the situation. He said that nothing had been done since the crews came here except to try to settle the make-up of the "varsity four" and the freshman eight and to get the "varsity eight" into better physical condition.

"They were unable to do any rowing which amounted to anything," he said, "for two weeks before they came here, and they must be put back into condition gradually. I shall not send them over the course for another week, anyway."

Mr. Kennedy admitted that he expected to make no more changes in the "varsity eight" but he thinks the freshman eight is now settled and that the "varsity four" is pretty well picked. Capt. Livingston of the freshman eight has lost his seat to Frost, a substitute, and Frost will undoubtedly now stroke the 1911 shell. The "varsity four" as now selected is as follows: Stroke, Wallis; No. 3, Miller; No. 2, Godley, and bow, Wodell.

A sharp contest for stroke oar has been had between Jack O'Brien and Jack Blackburn. F. Butler Wallis of Boston and L. H. Robbins of Springfield, Wallis is now practically certain of his seat. He stroked the Yale second crew which broke the world's record at the American Henley two weeks ago.

THE RING

JACK O'BRIEN AND BLACKBURN.

On Wednesday there will be a bout at Philadelphia which Manager Jack McGuigan confidently hopes will pack the spacious amphitheatre of the National A. C. of that city. That is the contest between Jack O'Brien and Jack Blackburn (colored). O'Brien has several advantages.

He will be O'Brien's return to grace since he was condemned for having tried to induce Tommy Burns to fake their second contest. O'Brien has had a good rest and will probably be better than ever before in his career. The promoters are watching this bout with interest for there is talk of O'Brien and Blackburn being matched in California.

Tommy Burns was to be matched some time ago with Sammy McVey for Saturday, but that has probably been canceled by the industrial Canadian. The scheduled bout between Jimmy Gardner and Jack Dougherty may not be held either.

BOUTS FOR THE WEEK.

TODAY.
 Jack O'Brien vs. Jack Blackburn, at Philadelphia.

THURSDAY.
 Dick Nelson vs. Jeff Dochow, at New York; Eddie Santry vs. Louie Long, at Taft, Mont.

FRIDAY.
 Frank Carney vs. Kid Dalton, at Jeffries A. C., Carson, Cal.; Ambly McGarry vs. Dave Deahler, at New York.

SATURDAY.
 Jack Goodman vs. Lew Sheppard, at New York.

MEMSIC IN A DRAW.

Boston, June 9.—At the end of a slow twelve round bout before the Armory Athletic Association tonight between George Memsic of Los Angeles, Cal., and young Donohue of this city, Referee Donnelly called it a draw. Memsic nearly knocked Donohue out in the first round with a left hook to the jaw but the latter came back strong and evened up matters toward the end by his clever work.

U. OF W. ENTERS CREW.

Seattle, June 9.—The University of Washington eight-oared crew, which now holds the Pacific Coast championship, has sent its entry for the intercollegiate regatta at Foughepsue on June 27.

ROUSE O'BRIEN BENEFIT.

Rouse O'Brien will have a benefit at the Columbia Theatre, Boston on June 22. Several well-known comedians and vaudeville performers have promised to participate.

RECTOR "NOT SO MUCH" AFTER ALL.

Says Bob Dunbar in the Boston Journal: "Well, where was Rector with his 923 seconds? The boy rowed well at Philadelphia Saturday and I do not want to detract one iota from his game showing, but Rector is just exactly what has been claimed in this column, a good, sound ten second man. Granted that he has set back a yard and gained two feet on Law."

Body of Edward Currie Found Yesterday by Two Boys—He Has Been Missing Since Last September.

Fredericton, N. B., June 9.—The mystery surrounding the disappearance of Edward Currie, fish warden of Douglas, who has been missing since Sept. 29 last, was cleared up this afternoon by the discovery of his body grounded on a rock in the river at the lower side of the court house slip. The body was in an advanced stage of decomposition, but fish warden's papers found in the pocket left little doubt as to the man's identity.

Later a brother and several intimate friends of the missing man positively identified the body as that of Currie.

The gruesome find was made by two boys named Arthur Barry and Leo Boyd. They were out in a boat opposite the court house when they saw what appeared to be a bundle of clothing resting upon a rock. Upon closer investigation they saw that the supposed bundle was in reality the body of a man. Towing the body ashore, they notified Constable Hawthorne, who in turn notified Coroner Weaver of the find. After viewing the body the coroner had it removed to McAdams' undertaking establishment where it was seen and identified by relatives and friends. It was decided to hold an inquest and a jury composed of Howard Rogers, J. M. Lemont, J. D. Black, J. L. Neville, Wm. H. Walker, W. E. Seery and Jas. Fanjoy were empanelled and adjourned to meet tomorrow evening.

Currie's body was removed this evening to his former home at Douglas, where it will be interred tomorrow afternoon. As already stated, Currie disappeared September 29 of last year. He was last seen on Queen street, and was partially under the influence of liquor. It is supposed that he walked out Regent street believing that he was traveling towards the wharf. This theory was generally accepted at the time and although the river was dragged in the vicinity of the wharf and dynamite exploded in the water, it refused to give up its dead.

The supposition now is that when Currie fell into the water, his clothing caught in some projection from which he was a suspicion in some quarters that he had met with foul play.

This evening Dr. G. J. McNally, at the request of Coroner Weaver, made an examination of vital parts of the body and could find nothing to indicate that death had been due to any cause but drowning.

A brother of the deceased, who was present when the examination was made, told the Telegraph correspondent that he was thoroughly satisfied that death had been accidental.

Currie was forty-five years old and leaves a widow and four daughters, also five brothers. He carried $1,000 insurance in the Forsters, but in the absence of proof of death the widow has thus far been unable to collect the amount of the policy. Currie was a member of Court Keewick, and also an Orangeman.

A reward of $50 offered for the recovery of the body will be claimed by Barry and Boyd.

Currie's body was removed this evening to his former home at Douglas, where it will be interred tomorrow afternoon. As already stated, Currie disappeared September 29 of last year. He was last seen on Queen street, and was partially under the influence of liquor. It is supposed that he walked out Regent street believing that he was traveling towards the wharf. This theory was generally accepted at the time and although the river was dragged in the vicinity of the wharf and dynamite exploded in the water, it refused to give up its dead.

The supposition now is that when Currie fell into the water, his clothing caught in some projection from which he was a suspicion in some quarters that he had met with foul play.

This evening Dr. G. J. McNally, at the request of Coroner Weaver, made an examination of vital parts of the body and could find nothing to indicate that death had been due to any cause but drowning.

A brother of the deceased, who was present when the examination was made, told the Telegraph correspondent that he was thoroughly satisfied that death had been accidental.

Currie was forty-five years old and leaves a widow and four daughters, also five brothers. He carried $1,000 insurance in the Forsters, but in the absence of proof of death the widow has thus far been unable to collect the amount of the policy. Currie was a member of Court Keewick, and also an Orangeman.

A reward of $50 offered for the recovery of the body will be claimed by Barry and Boyd.

FOUND FLOATING IN ST. JOHN RIVER

Body of Edward Currie Found Yesterday by Two Boys—He Has Been Missing Since Last September.

Fredericton, N. B., June 9.—The mystery surrounding the disappearance of Edward Currie, fish warden of Douglas, who has been missing since Sept. 29 last, was cleared up this afternoon by the discovery of his body grounded on a rock in the river at the lower side of the court house slip. The body was in an advanced stage of decomposition, but fish warden's papers found in the pocket left little doubt as to the man's identity.

Later a brother and several intimate friends of the missing man positively identified the body as that of Currie.

The gruesome find was made by two boys named Arthur Barry and Leo Boyd. They were out in a boat opposite the court house when they saw what appeared to be a bundle of clothing resting upon a rock. Upon closer investigation they saw that the supposed bundle was in reality the body of a man. Towing the body ashore, they notified Constable Hawthorne, who in turn notified Coroner Weaver of the find. After viewing the body the coroner had it removed to McAdams' undertaking establishment where it was seen and identified by relatives and friends. It was decided to hold an inquest and a jury composed of Howard Rogers, J. M. Lemont, J. D. Black, J. L. Neville, Wm. H. Walker, W. E. Seery and Jas. Fanjoy were empanelled and adjourned to meet tomorrow evening.
