Board of Trade Passes Resolution Favoring Concessions to Enterprise Foundry Company.

The Enterprise Foundry Co. paid out about $150 each fortnight in wages, says a Sackville letter, and the council of the board of trade has adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, that the council of the Sackville Board of Trade hereby express to the town council the opinion that in view of the very serious loss which the Enterprise Foundry Company has sustained it would be quite in order for the town to make some considerable concession in the way of exemption from taxation or free water for a term of years or any other assistance that the council may decide upon, not as a bonus, but somewhat as a partial compensation for the great loss sustained."

POLICE COURT

James Dolan Sent Back to Jail After Very Brief Term of Liberty.

James Dolan, an Englishman arrested at midnight for being drunk and disorderly in the Salvation Army Home, was the sole prisoner on the benches this morning.

He denied the charge and it developed that he had been liberated from jail yesterday after serving a term of two months for drunkenness. He said he had been in St. John five months and acknowledged being in jail for practically the entire length of time.

Harry Burton, a guest at the Home testified that Dolan assaulted him and was otherwise disorderly and profane. Another witness corroborated Burton's evidence and Dolan was later sentenced to two months in jail. On imposing sentence, the magistrate remarked that he desired the jail officials to give Dolan the most laborious work possible.

Frank Morris and Donald Morris, Harrison McCluskey and Roy McCluskey, two sets of brothers, were reported for acting disorderly on St. David street, were reprimanded. Several other complaints are pending against these boys, one by Jonas Howe for breaking windows in his furniture factory at the foot of Union street.

The McCluskeys reside on Pitt street and the Morris brothers on St. David street.

Harry Aberly, the fourteen-year-old boy arrested for the theft of a fare box and contents from a street railway car, and who was remanded from Saturday, pleaded guilty to the charge, this morning and a further remand was made. His father who appeared in court, stated that the boy has been absent from school for two years, during which time he has been working at intervals. He said the boy had not been particularly unwell.

The lad is still suffering from a case of mumps which he contracted a day prior to his arrest.
